Psychology and Mental Health Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments Arab American Children with Disabilities Jamal M. Thomas, 2015-09-15 Exploring the experience of Muslims in America following 9 11 this book assesses how anti Muslim bias within the U S government and the larger society undermines American security and democracy In the aftermath of the events of September 11 2001 Muslims in America have experienced discrimination and intolerance from the U S government and American citizens alike From religious and ethnic profiling to hate crimes intolerance against Muslims is being reinforced on multiple levels undercutting the Muslim community s engagement in American society This text is essential for understanding how the unjust treatment of American Muslims following September 11 has only served to alienate the Muslim community and further divide the United States Authored by an expert analyst of policy for 20 years this book explores the prejudice against Muslims and how the actions of the U S government continue to perpetuate fear and stereotypes within U S citizens The author posits that by respecting the civil rights of Muslims the government will lead by example in the acceptance of American Muslims improving homeland security along with the lives of Muslims living in the United States
