Local Governance, Economic Development and Institutions
 G. Gomez,P. Knorringa,2016-04-08 Development is what most people see as progress in the places where they live and in the ways they live It has to do with public services the ways to complain when these are not delivered properly and the spaces to change power structures It is related to the economy the opportunities to access a secure job a sustainable livelihood and increased welfare while caring for the planet and others It is also linked to the institutions that allow people to live life well using resources ethically and doing business responsibly in relation to other communities and future generations This edited collection examines the interconnections between local governance economic development and institutions by focusing on what initiatives work and under what conditions they do so Based on a variety of theories and empirical data it presents evidence from current experiences around the world revealed by researchers across different continents and several generations

Decentralised Governance and Development in Tribal Areas in Odisha, India Bishnu Prasad Mohapatra,2023-08-17 This book is a result of a piece of field based research that discusses the institutional arrangements and workings of the rural local governments otherwise known as the Panchayati Raj institutions in rural and tribal areas scheduled areas in the context of the enactment of important constitutional and legal provisions It focuses on understanding decentralised governance through political structures and workings of rural local governments and the contributions of these institutions in shaping the political economy of the tribal people in India through the case of Odisha It highlights the Panchayati Raj institutions that have been instrumental in strengthening the local politics and governance as well as propelling the economic development of tribal communities in rural areas It demonstrates that effective implementation is the tantamount of strengthening the livelihoods of poor tribal people

Democratic Governance, Law, and Development in Africa Maame Efua Addadzi-Koom,Michael Addaney,Lydia A. Nkansah,2022-12-10 This volume analyses democratic governance the rule of law and development in Africa It is unique and timely First the theme and sub themes were carefully selected to solicit quality chapters from academics practitioners and graduate students on topical and contemporary issues in constitutional law human rights and democratic governance in Africa The chapters were subjected to a single blind peer review by experts and scholars in the relevant fields to ensure that high quality submissions are included Due to the dearth of knowledge and studies on the chosen thematic areas the publication will remain relevant after several years due to the timeless themes it covers In this regard this edited volume audits the progress of democratic consolidation rule of law and development in Ghana with selected case studies from other African countries This book is intended for higher education institutions universities institutes and centres public libraries general academics practitioners and students of law democracy human rights and political science especially those interested in African affairs

Reforming the Malawian Public

Sector Richard Tambulasi, 2010-06-01 Reforming the Malawian Public Sector argues that the new public management model that Malawi like most African countries adopted under the influence of donor organisations has not led to the intended development. The book examines decentralisation, performance contracting and public-private partnerships as key aspects of the reforms and comes to the conclusion that at best it can be argued that the failures have been due to poor implementation and this could be attributed to the fact that the process was led by donors who lacked the necessary institutional infrastructure. The book uses the 2005 6 fertiliser subsidy programme which the government embarked on despite donor resistance that it went against market models but which turned out to be overwhelmingly successful to demonstrate the state's developmental ability and potential. This volume is essential reading for academics, students and practitioners seeking a deeper understanding of public administration, management, policy development and governance in Africa and the rest of the developing world. The book is dedicated to the memory of Guy Mhone, a Malawian who was among Africa's leading scholars in public administration and governance. His works focused mainly on public sector reforms and development. Local Governance in India Thodupuzha M. Joseph, 2007. Papers presented at the National Workshop on Decentralised Democracy and Planning held at Newman College Thodupuzha on Dec 19 2003.
