Anthropology and Colonialism in Asia Jan van Bremen, Akitoshi Shimizu, 2013-03-07 For a time it was almost a cliché to say that anthropology was a handmaiden of colonialism by which was usually meant Western colonialism And this insinuation was assumed to somehow weaken the theoretical claims of anthropology and its fieldwork achievements What this collection demonstrates is that colonialism was not only a Western phenomenon but Eastern as well And that Japanese or Chinese anthropologists were also engaged in studying subject peoples But wherever they were and whoever they were anthropologists always had a complex and problematic relationship with the colonial state The latter saw some anthropologists sympathy for the natives as a threat while on the other hand anthropological knowledge was used for the training of colonial officials The impact of the colonial situation on the formation of anthropological theories is an important if not easily answered question and the comparison of experiences in Asia offered in this book further helps to illuminate this complex relationship Slavist, Linguist, Philanthropist Jan Paul Hinrichs, 2006 Nicolaas van Wijk 1880 1941 was the founder of Slavic studies in the Netherlands and one of the greatest Slavists in general This book describes for the first time how a scholar of the Dutch language whose etymological dictionary of the Dutch language is still considered the best of its kind was appointed in 1913 to the newly created Chair in Slavic languages at Leiden University and built up a tremendous reputation for himself in Eastern Europe Van Wijk's relations with his famous teacher the linguist C C Uhlenbeck are followed attentively as is his postgraduate apprenticeship in Leipzig 1902 1903 where he followed August Leskien's lectures in Slavic studies Attention is also paid to the various aspects of Van Wijk's enormous oeuvre covering the whole field of Slavic studies and of phonology of which he was one of the pioneers Van Wijk did not however follow the lines approved for the social conduct of a Leiden professor and was at one time suspected by the police of communist activities His commitment to materially helping all he could from an Eastern Europe torn apart by the First World War and its aftermath was exceptional His fascination with all things Russian is a background theme that played throughout his life and even at his death son of a Dutch Reformed minister the bachelor Van Wijk was buried in a grave surmounted by a Russian Orthodox cross beside his Russian foster son who died young This book is of interest to Slavists linguists and cultural historians The Leiden Legacy

Peter Burns, 2021-09-20 Social Ontology, Sociocultures, and Inequality in the Global South Benjamin Baumann, Daniel Bultmann, 2020-05-07 Challenging the assumption that the capitalist transformation includes a radical break with the past this edited volume traces how historically older forms of social inequality are transformed but persist in the present to shape the social structure of contemporary societies in the global South Each social collective comprises an interpretation of itself including the meaning of life the concept of a human person and the notion of a collective This volume studies the interpretation that various social collectives have of themselves This interpretation is referred to as social ontology All chapters of the edited volume focus on the relation between social ontology and structures of inequality They argue that each society comprises several historical layers of social ontology that correspond to layers of inequality which are referred to as sociocultures Thereby the volume explains why and how structures of inequality differ between contemporary collectives in the global South even though all of them seem to have similar structures institutions and economies The volume is aimed at academics students and the interested public looking for a novel theorization of social inequality pertaining to social collectives in the global South Van Asbeck: International Society in Search of a Transnational Legal Order

H.F. van Panhuys, M. van Leeuwen-Boomkamp, 2024-10-28 International Law in Historical Perspective J.P.S. Offerhaus, W.P. Heere, J.H.W. Verzijl, 2023-11-27 This volume completes the monumental eleven volume series International Law in Historical Perspective which was published over a period of 24 years by Professor J H W Verzijl and continued after his death in 1987 by W P Heere and J P S Offerhaus This index volume provides insight into the series both for the uninitiated and initiated enabling the user to access all 11 volumes spanning a total of 6500 printed pages quickly and easily It contains a subject index an index of personal names of geographical names of ships names a list of treaties a list of international judgements and a list of international arbitrations A list of Professor Verzijl's commentaries on the more recent jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice completes the volume The Scientific Correspondence of H.A. Lorentz A.J.

Kox, 2018-07-27 This is the second and final volume of Dutch physicist Hendrik Antoon Lorentz's scientific correspondence with Dutch colleagues including Pieter Zeeman and Paul Ehrenfest. These 294 letters cover multiple subjects ranging from pure mathematics to magneto optics and wave mechanics. They reveal much about their author including Lorentz's surprisingly active involvement in experimental matters in the first decades of his career. Letters are also devoted to general relativity, Lorentz's 1908 lecture on radiation theory and his receipt of the Nobel Prize along with Zeeman in 1902. The letters are presented in their original language. Dutch originals are accompanied by English translations. A concise biography of Lorentz is also included.
