Italian as a foreign language: Teaching and acquisition in higher education Alberto Regagliolo,2023-10-10 This manual focuses on teaching Italian as a foreign language in the academic field taking into consideration the various subjects and disciplines that can be found in a university course in Italian Studies Various chapters are included within that range for example from Italian phonetics and dialectology to art as a means to deepen elements of the Italian language to morphology with word formations and to translation as well as subtitling The range also covers technology as a tool for telecollaboration academic writing and learning Italian through geography or the language of vulgarity Besides the manual takes into consideration the use of the Italian press for learning together with the use of comics and cartoons to teach the Italian language The contribution aims to be a point of reference both for teachers and students who are focusing on linguistics philology didactics and pedagogy It lays emphasis on the teaching methodology the instruments of teaching and the available resources It also seeks to deal with the various teaching problems and reflects on the disciplines as well as alternative proposals for teaching

Interculturality in Institutions Marilena Fatigante,Cristina Zucchermaglio,Francesca Alby,2022-11-24 This book provides qualitative analyses of intercultural sense making in a variety of institutional contexts It relies on the assumption that in an increasingly culturally diverse world individuals often enter contexts that have communal historically determined and stable sets of values norms and expected identities with little cultural compass to find their bearings in them The book goes beyond interpreting differences in people's ethnic or linguistic roots and discusses instead people's interpretive efforts to navigate different sociocultural situations The contributors examine such situations in educational organizational medical and community settings and look at how participants with different levels of sociocultural competences such as migrant patients migrant adult learners children try to cope with institutional constraints and expectations how they understand symbols practices and identities in institutional contexts and how their creative adjustments come to light This book provides insights from the fields of psychology education anthropology and linguistics and is for a wide readership interested in cultural meaning making

Digital Resources, Creativity and Innovative Methodologies in Language Teaching and Learning Adriana Teresa Damascelli,2017-06-20 The concept of university language centres has changed in recent decades Initially conceived as laboratories for practical and autonomous language learning they are now considered as places with more specific and complex functions in language teaching and learning University language centres now constitute networks for exchanging knowledge and know how in order to respond to ever changing multilingual and multicultural contexts At the same time the availability and acquisition of new technologies is contributing to the creation of new tools for the provision of appropriate services and training This collection covers a wide range of topics related to the activities experiences and applied research carried out in Italian university language centres It provides further evidence of the important role university language centres play in promoting language expertise developing tools and adopting digital resources and providing support and training for language teaching Technology creativity methodologies and plurilingualism are key topics in the book as they constitute the essential ingredients for effective and successful language teaching and learning The volume s thirty three chapters provide multi perspective approaches showing how the real contexts of current language education need the integration of theoretical backgrounds with the best practices resulting from practical experience

Guide for the linguistic inclusion of migrants Lorna Carson,2022-06-01 Designed to create tangible materials which support the demands of this context the INCLUDEED Erasmus project aims to integrate migrants and refugees through one of Europe s greatest assets their languages This guide aims to become an ally of both those who wish to deepen their knowledge of the migration phenomenon and those who wish to facilitate the integration process of these groups Developed from the experience that the Universities of the consortium have in this field University of Salamanca University of Bologna University of Coimbra University of Heidelberg University of Poitiers and Trinity College Dublin this document emanates from a common effort as well as from the will to form an egalitarian society in terms of integration However this would not have been possible without the support of various non governmental organisations Red Cross ACCEM CEPAIM Foundation and Sierra Pambley Foundation which dedicated to the reception and integration of migrants and refugees throughout Europe have facilitated the identification of difficulties and enabled bridges to be built between different perspectives and joint efforts to converge in the same direction This guide addresses the various challenges that emerge during the integration period of these groups and proposes solutions that can help this complex process to be successful Designed as a useful vade mecum for the performance of the tasks of the various groups language teaching professionals or volunteers non governmental organisations and national and supranational public institutions it is a support tool that guides the actions of those involved in the process of linguistic integration of newly arrived people It provides them with a better understanding of the situation in which these groups find themselves and of the tools available to achieve this In short it is a document that seeks to bring together through informative but rigorous text the theoretical advances in this field and to offer various resources that can be put into practice in real life Finally we would like to emphasise that the contents of this guide should be understood as suggestions arising from the experience and commitment of those who have worked on its development and as a tool that will help to answer some of the questions that arise in the process of integration of migrant groups These questions are currently being answered thanks to the committed engagement of all those who are participating in this project In addition information from all the countries in the consortium can be found throughout these pages which broadens the perspective of most of the tools created so far making this guide truly an international reference work

New Approaches to Teaching Italian Language and Culture Emanuele Occhipinti, 2008-12-11 New Approaches to Teaching Italian Language and Culture fills a major gap in existing scholarship and textbooks devoted to the teaching of Italian language and culture A much needed project in Italianistica this collection of essays offers case studies that provide a coherent and organized overview of contemporary Italian pedagogy incorporating the expertise of scholars in the field of language methodology and language acquisition from Italy and four major countries where the study of Italian has a long tradition Australia Canada Great Britain and the United States The twenty four essays divided into six main parts offer a tremendous variety of up to date approaches to the teaching of Italian as a foreign language and L2 ranging from theoretical to more practical hands on strategies with essays on curricular innovations technology study abroad programs culture film and song use as effective pedagogical tools Each case study introduces a systematic approach with an overview of theory activities and assessment suggestions collection of research data and syllabi The book addresses the needs of instructors and teacher trainers putting in perspective different examples that can be used for more effective teaching techniques according to the ACTFL guidelines and the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages
