Don't Be Afraid of Loving Yourself: The Art of Loving Yourself According to Osho Alden Clamor, 2024-09-10

A couple of years ago on a bustling Avenue des Champs-Élysées in Paris I found myself gazing into the window of a quaint bookstore called Golden Books my reflection staring back at me a young man far from home searching for answers. That day I bought a book entitled A Course in Miracles that promised secrets to happiness peace and love. Yet as I flipped through its pages I realized I was looking for happiness peace and love in the wrong places. I cannot find love in the crowd. This book springs from a fundamental truth that took me from the vibrant locales of Europe back to the serene shores of the Philippines to discover that self-love is not just a state of feeling good about oneself but a profound journey toward inner freedom peace and fulfillment. It's a truth that resonates across cultures touching the hearts of those from every generation millennials to baby boomers alike each of us grappling with our own narratives of worthiness happiness love and peace. My journey woven through the academic halls of psychology and the compassionate wards of nursing enriched by the profound wisdom of Osho's teachings has taught me that self-love transcends geographical and psychological borders. It is not confined to the corners of a mind or a specific latitude and longitude it is a limitless vibrant force that propels us forward.
