The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema Li Yang,2018-10-31 The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema 1990 2003 examines the development of Chinese art film in the People s Republic of China from 1990 when the first Sixth Generation film Mama was released to 2003 when authorities acknowledged the legitimacy of underground filmmakers Through an exploration of the production and consecration mechanisms of the new art wave and its representative styles this book argues that the art wave of the 1990s fundamentally defined Chinese art cinema In particular this vital art wave was not enabled by democratic liberalism but by the specific industrial development in which the film system transitioned from Socialist propaganda into a commercialized entity Allowing Chinese art film to grow but at the same time denying its legitimacy this paradoxical transition process shaped Chinese art film s institutional and aesthetical alternative positioning which eventually helped consolidate the art wave into art cinema Ultimately this book is a history of the Chinese portion of global art cinema which also reveals the complex Chinese cultural experiences during the Reform Era

Lives in Chinese Music Helen Rees,2010-10-01 Until recently most scholarly work on Chinese music in both Chinese and Western languages has focused on genres musical structure and general history and concepts rather than on the musicians themselves This volume breaks new ground by focusing on individual musicians active in different amateur and professional music scenes in mainland China Hong Kong and Chinese communities in Europe Using biography to deepen understanding of Chinese music contributors present richly contextualized portraits of rural folk singers urban opera singers literati and musicians on both geographic and cultural frontiers The topics investigated by these authors provide fresh insights into issues such as the urban rural divide the position of ethnic minorities within the People's Republic of China the adaptation of performing arts to modernizing trends of the twentieth century and the use of the arts for propaganda and commercial purposes The social and political history of China serves as a backdrop to these discussions of music and culture as the lives chronicled here illuminate experiences from the pre Communist period through the Cultural Revolution to the present Showcasing multiple facets of Chinese musical life this collection is especially effective in taking advantage of the liberalization of mainland China that has permitted researchers to work closely with artists and to discuss the interactions of life and local and national histories in musicians experiences Contributors are Nimrod Baranovitch Rachel Harris Frank Kouwenhoven Tong Soon Lee Peter Micic Helen Rees Antoinet Schimmelpenninck Shao Binsun Jonathan P J Stock and Bell Yung
