Decision Making C. M. Allwood, M. Selart, 2014-01-15 Decision Making: Social and Creative Dimensions C.M.

Allwood, M. Selart, 2013-04-17 Decision making is a complex phenomenon which normally is deeply integrated into social life. At the same time the decision making process often gives the decision maker an opportunity for conscious planning and for taking a reflective stance with respect to the action considered. This suggests that decision making allows creative solutions with a potential to change the course of events both on an individual and a collective level. Given these considerations we argue that in order to more fully understand decision making the perspectives of different disciplines are needed. In this volume we have attempted to draw together contributions that would provide a broad view of decision making. Much work has been carried out in the writing and editing of this volume. First of all we would like to thank the contributors for their efforts in producing interesting and important texts and for their patience in the editorial process. Each chapter was edited by two or three reviewers. These reviewers are listed on a separate page in this book. Our heartfelt thanks go to them for their time and for their incisive and constructive reviews. We are also grateful to the publishing editors at Kluwer Academic Publishers, Christiane Roll and Dorien Francissen, who have been generous with their encouragement and patience throughout the editorial process.

DECISION MAKING STYLE: Social and Creative Dimensions DEV VERMA, 2009-12 As a leader or responsible person we often stuck with decision making. It's our job to make decisions that are in the best interest of the whole organisation or to ourselves. We must consider the good of many, not of a few. This is a big responsibility and very often people don't appreciate our efforts. In fact many times people get angry at us because of the decisions we make to help them. In this book we discuss decision making style. Not the decision itself but style. We hope that readers will appreciate this effort.

Strategic Decision Making in the Arts Gary D. Beckman, Karl Androes, 2024-08-26 For entrepreneurs in the creative fields, decision making is both a necessity and an art. Applying creativity to strategic decisions requires skills developed over time. This textbook provides arts entrepreneurship students a series of case studies centering on decision making models applicable to launching and sustaining arts businesses. Each case set in the book focuses on a particular arts entrepreneur within the context of a range of creative businesses from performance to videography. To facilitate classroom adoption, the authors provide expert guidance on getting the most from case study based learning. Additional features include insights into the key decision making models in each case analysis by a leader in the arts entrepreneurship education field, on the factors forcing a decision, and a broad view on the arts ecologies surrounding each example. Suitable for students in arts management programs as well, this book introduces readers to case based learning via practical examples that give students insight into strategic decision making in the creative industries. Creativity Sílvio Manuel Brito,João Thomaz,2022-09-14 What is creativity There are many definitions many of which involve trying different experiences searching for new solutions exercising our brains and meeting and talking with new people To be creative we need to believe in our skills and step outside our comfort zones in the search for new challenges This book is a discussion of creativity in four parts creativity behaviour creativity learning creativity in science and arts and creativity tendencies Chapters address such topics as creativity in children creativity in education creativity at the emotional level and more

Escaping from Bad Decisions Kazuhisa Takemura,2021-07-27 Escaping from Bad Decisions presents a modern conceptual and mathematical framework of the decision making process By interpreting ordinal utility theory as normative analysis examined in view of rationality it shows how decision making under certainty risk and uncertainty can be better understood It provides a critical examination of psychological models in multi attribute decision making and evaluates the constitutive elements of good and bad decisions Multi attribute decision making is analysed descriptively based on the psychological model of decision making and computer simulations of decision strategies Finally prescriptive examinations of multi attribute decision making are performed supporting the argument that decision making from a pluralistic perspective creates results that can help escape from bad decisions This book will be of particular interest to graduate students and early career researchers in economics decision theory behavioral economics experimental economics psychology cognitive sciences and decision neurosciences Provides a comprehensive background to the phenomena of bad decisions considered in their economic psychological and cognitive aspects Reinterprets existing theories and phenomena and proposes a new overview of decision behaviors by integrating mathematical and psychological perspectives Adapts model based techniques such as mathematical model based functional magnetic resonance imaging fMRI using mathematical models of the decision process Collective Creativity Gerhard Fischer, Florian Vassen, 2011

Collective Creativity combines complex and ambivalent concepts While creativity is currently experiencing an inflationary boom in popularity the term collective appeared until recently rather controversial due to its ideological implications in twentieth century politics In a world defined by global cultural practice the notion of collectivity has gained new relevance This publication discusses a number of concepts of creativity and shows that in opposition to the traditional ideal of the individual as creative genius cultural theorists today emphasize the collaborative nature of creativity they show that creativity makes alterity discontinuity and difference attractive Not the Romantic Originalgenie but rather the agents of the creative economy appear as the new avant garde of aesthetic innovation teams groups and collectives in business and science in art and digital media who work together in networking clusters to develop innovative products and processes In this book scholars in the social sciences and in cultural and media studies in literature theatre and visual arts present for the first time a comprehensive inter and transdisciplinary account of collective creativity in its multifaceted applications They investigate the intersections of artistic scientific and cultural practice where the individual and the collective merge come together or confront each other
