of the Church and to serve the life of the Church is called ecclesial. In 1988 Joseph Ratzinger put forward a proposal of what this should mean which he called Method C in contrast to the patristic medieval approach Method A and the historical critical approach Method B. This book examines the warrant for the Method C proposal in the document Dei Verbum of the Second Vatican Council and offers nine studies applying this method that bring to the surface issues such as the relationship between Old Testament and New Testament, literal sense and spiritual sense, and Scripture and Tradition.

“My People, What Have I Done to You?”: The Good Friday Popule meus Verses in Chant and Exegesis, c. 380-880 Armin Karim, 2014-04-04

The Roman Catholic Good Friday liturgy includes a series of chants known today as the Improperia. Reproaches beginning with the following text: Popule meus quid feci tibi aut in quo contristavi te responde mihi Quia eduxi te de terra Egypti parasti crucem Salvatori tuo My people what have I done to you or in what have I grieved you Answer me Because I led you out of the land of Egypt you prepared a cross for your Savior. The earliest witness to the chants is a Carolingian liturgical book from around 880, but it is agreed among scholars that their history extends back farther than this. Employing comparative analysis of Biblical exegesis, chant texts, and chant melodies, this study suggests that the initial chant verse Micah 6:3-4a plus a Christianizing addendum My people you prepared originated in northwestern Italy between the end of the 4th century and the end of the 7th century and carried associations of the Last Judgment, the Passion, and Christian works of penitence and forgiveness. Although previous scholarship has sometimes pointed to the Reproaches as a key text of Christian anti-Jewish history, it is clear that the initial three verses, the Popule meus verses, originally held allegorical rather than literal meanings. The fact that there are several preserved Popule meus chants across various liturgical repertoires and moreover several sets of Popule meus verses in a smaller subset of these repertoires in northern Italy, southern France, and the Spanish March bespeaks the pre-Carolingian origins of the Popule meus verses and raises the question of why the verses appear in the Carolingian liturgy when they do. This study proposes that the Popule meus verses were incorporated into the Carolingian liturgy at the Abbey of Saint Denis under the abbacy of Charles the Bald (867-77). In the Adoration of the Cross ceremony adopted from Rome, paired with the Greek Trisagion and carrying Gallican melody and meaning, the Carolingian Popule meus verses would have been an ecumenical declaration as they spread of the expediency of the crucified Christ and a penitent people even in the face of impending political disintegration.

Hebrew Psalms and the Utrecht Psalter Pamela Berger, 2020-01-28

In a major departure from previous scholarship, this volume argues that the illustrations in the famous and widely influential Utrecht Psalter manuscript were inspired by a late antique Hebrew version of Psalms rather than a Latin Christian version of the text. Produced during the early ninth century in a workshop near Reims, France, the Utrecht Psalter is illustrated with pen and ink drawings in a lively style reminiscent of Hellenistic art. The motifs are largely literal renditions of words and phrases found in the book of Psalms. However, more than three dozen motifs cannot be explained by either the Latin text that accompanies the imagery or the commentaries of the church fathers. Through a close reading of the Hebrew

Psalms Pamela Berger demonstrates that these motifs can be explained only by the Hebrew text the Jewish commentary or Jewish art Drawing comparisons between the Hellenistic style of the Psalter images and the style of late antique Galilean mosaics and using evidence from recent archaeological discoveries Berger argues that the model for those Psalter illustrations dependent on the Hebrew text was produced in the Galilee Pioneering and highly persuasive this book resolves outstanding issues surrounding the origins of one of the most extensively studied illuminated manuscripts It will be mandatory reading for many historians of medieval art and literature and for those interested in the Hebrew text of the book of Psalms

The Psalms (4 Volume Set) Christopher Ash, 2024-07-09 Stand Alone Commentary Set from Christopher Ash Sets Out a Deeply Christian Study of the Psalms While reading Psalms it is common for commentaries to focus on Old Testament meaning without connecting it deeply to Christ s fulfillment in the New Testament By studying Scripture this way believers miss out on the fullness of God s word The key to experiencing authentically Christian worship is learning a Christ focused approach to praying and singing the Psalms In this comprehensive 4 volume commentary Christopher Ash provides a thorough treatment of all 150 Psalms examining each psalm s significance to David and the other psalmists to Jesus during his earthly ministry and to the church of Christ in every age The first volume in the set is a detailed handbook that explains how to interpret the Psalms with Christ at the center The remaining 3 volumes cover each psalm in depth with introductory quotations a deep analysis of the text s structure and vocabulary and a closing reflection and response Ash also includes selected quotations from older readings of the Psalms including patristic medieval Reformation and post Reformation scholars Perfect for pastors Bible teachers and students this commentary set helps readers sing and pray the Psalms with Christ in view Stand Alone Commentary Christopher Ash s research also builds on other commentaries for a comprehensive thorough resource on the Psalms Exhaustive Ash s exegesis includes all 150 Psalms and their superscriptions and explores how the Psalms are quoted and echoed throughout the New Testament Applicable and Heartfelt Explains how a Christ centered approach to reading the Psalms influences doctrines of prayer prophecy the Trinity ecclesiology and more Ideal for Pastors and Serious Students of Scripture Written for Bible teachers Sunday school and youth leaders and small group leaders

Fragmented Memory Nicoletta Bruno, Martina Filosa, Giulia Marinelli, 2022-02-21 Chance in addition to the unavoidable ambiguity caused by time is one of the main guilty parties in the transmission of ancient texts or lack thereof However the same cannot be said for what concerns the mechanisms of selection and loss of historical and literary memory where the voluntary awareness of obscuring is often part of a precise aim thus leading the cultural memory of a literate society to become fragmented The present volume explores the devices and criteria of selection and loss in Ancient and Medieval texts and the subsequent fragmentation of such literature but it also addresses the questions of the damnatio memoriae of literary strategies such as reticence and omission as well as of known texts deemed lost but re found thanks to state of the art methods in digitization The many and diverse nuances of the concepts of omission selection and loss throughout Ancient and Medieval literature and history are illustrated through a number of case studies in the four sections of this volume each examining a different facet of the topic Mechanisms and criteria of textual loss and selection Lost texts re discovered Voluntary omissions and desire for oblivion and Re working the known
