Treating Sex Offenders Sarah Brown, 2013-07-04 This book aims to provide an introduction and overview of sex offender treatment programmes designed for students and practitioners coming to this field It seeks to describe the development theoretical underpinnings treatment goals and operation of cognitive behavioural and other programmes to an audience unfamiliar with this form of rehabilitation In addition it aims to examine the effectiveness of these programmes and the difficulties associated with assessing this the public response to treatment and also the effects on staff responsible for implementing them The book is concerned particularly to assess the operation of sex offender treatment programmes in the UK context considering also the issues associated with implementing programmes developed in other contexts especially the USA and Canada It will be of interest to practitioners particularly those who are beginning work on sex offender treatment programmes or others such as health workers social workers probation officers who come into contact with these programmes indirectly

Identifying and Treating Sex Offenders Robert Geffner, 2004 Identifying and Treating Sex Offenders Current Approaches Research and Techniques brings you up to date on the latest significant issues and state of the art tools involved in the evaluation and treatment of adult sex offenders Experts in the field discuss controversial topics including diagnoses classification public notification and risk assessment to help psychologists therapists and social workers better understand and work with this specialized population This book also contains accurate information about sex offender statistics and research for policymakers to use in creating policies and legal statutes that successfully deter recidivism in known sex offenders

Sex Offenders: Punish, Help, Change or Control? Jo Brayford, Francis Cowe, John Deering, 2013-05-07 Sex offending and in particular child sex offending is a complex area for policy makers theorists and practitioners A focus on punishment has reinforced sex offending as a problem that is essentially other to society and discourages engagement with the real scale and scope of sexual offending in the UK This book looks at the growth of work with sex offenders questioning assumptions about the range and types of such offenders and what effective responses to these might be Divided into four sections this book sets out the growth of a broad legislative context and the emergence of child sexual offenders in criminal justice policy and practice It goes on to consider a range of offences and victim typologies arguing that work with offenders and victims is complex and can provide a rich source of theoretical and practical knowledge that should be utilised more fully by both policy makers and practitioners It includes work on female sex offenders electronic monitoring and animal abuse as well as exploring interventions with sex offenders in three different contexts prisons communities and hostels Bringing together academic practice and policy experts the book argues that a clear but complex theoretical and policy approach is required if the risk of re offending and further victimisation is to be reduced Ultimately this book questions whether it makes sense to locate responsibility for responding to sexual offending solely within the criminal justice domain

Sex Offenders Fabian M. Saleh M.D.,Albert J. Grudzinskas,John M. Bradford M.D.,Daniel J. Brodsky LL.B.,2009-02-11 This comprehensive reference by nationally recognized experts provides an interdisciplinary overview of existing knowledge about sex offenders It provides in depth coverage of the problem of identification risk assessment and management treatment and legal solutions It seeks to ensure public safety while at the same time maintaining medical integrity and respect for due process The book is intended for psychiatrists clinical psychologists and researchers who work with sex offenders as well as attorneys members of the judiciary and policymakers

Perspectives On Evaluating Criminal Justice and Corrections Erica Bowen,Sarah Brown,2012-06-20 A comprehensive and authoritative overview of issues relating to the evaluation of criminal justice corrections interventions this book draws on a range of theoretical cultural and epistemological perspectives with authors from a range of disciplines and countries and provides a unique reference for academics practitioners and policy makers

The Therapist's Notebook Volume 3 Catherine Ford Sori,Lorna L. Hecker,2008-06-10 The Therapist s Notebook Volume 3 includes clinician field tested activities for therapists who work with individuals children and adolescents couples families and groups The reproducible handouts are designed to be practical and useful for the clinician and cover the most salient topics that counselors are likely to encounter in their practices with various theoretical approaches Each chapter includes a Reading and Resources for the Professional section that guides readers toward useful books videos or websites that will further enhance their understanding of the chapter contents This book is an excellent tool for both experienced and novice counselors for increasing therapeutic effectiveness

Handbook of Forensic Mental Health Services Ronald Roesch,Alana N. Cook,2017-05-18 Handbook of Forensic Mental Health Services focuses on assessment treatment and policy issues regarding juveniles and adults in the criminal and civil systems Uniquely this volume is designed for professionals who deliver mental health services rather than researchers Just like its parent series its goal revolves around improving the quality of mental health care services in forensic settings It achieves this by integrating the findings related to clinical practice administration and policy from trends and best practice internationally that mental health professionals can implement

The Sex Offender: Offender evaluation and program strategies Barbara K. Schwartz,Henry R. Cellini,1995

What Else Works? Jo Brayford,Francis B Cowe,John Deering,2013-05-13 What Else Works has developed out of a growing awareness amongst practitioners that centralized notions of what works and one size fits all approaches to work with offenders and other groups is inevitably limited in its scope and effectiveness The book seeks to dispel the view of probation service users as offenders and socially excluded people as problems to be managed and treated and instead considers more creative alternatives to reduce both re offending and social exclusion These include working separately with women black and minority ethnic groups local community focussed projects in education and nature and conservation programmes The reader is encouraged to think about past and current policy practice and the relationship between practitioners and offenders or other socially excluded people Questions are raised as to whether and how practice could be different and contributors explore the theme of creative and change focussed practice or focus on a particular approach to a practice This book will appeal to students on criminal justice criminology and social work courses professionals operating in these fields as well as the wider audience of professionals and academics who may engage with these service users from a range of policy and practice perspectives
