Creflo Dollar Defend Bishop Eddie Long:

Nobody Is Supposed to Know C. Riley Snorton, 2014-03-01 Since the early 2000s the phenomenon of the down low black men who have sex with men as well as women and do not identify as gay queer or bisexual has exploded in news media and popular culture from the Oprah Winfrey Show to R B singer R Kelly's hip hop opera Trapped in the Closet Most down low stories are morality tales in which black men are either predators who risk infecting their unsuspecting female partners with HIV or victims of a pathological black culture that repudiates openly gay identities In both cases down low narratives depict black men as sexually dangerous duplicitous promiscuous and contaminated In Nobody Is Supposed to Know C Riley Snorton traces the emergence and circulation of the down low in contemporary media and popular culture to show how these portrayals reinforce troubling perceptions of black sexuality Reworking Eve Sedgwick's notion of the glass closet Snorton advances a new theory of such representations in which black sexuality is marked by hypervisibility and confinement spectacle and speculation Through close readings of news music movies television and gossip blogs Nobody Is Supposed to Know explores the contemporary genealogy meaning and functions of the down low Snorton examines how the down low links blackness and queerness in the popular imagination and how the down low is just one example of how media and popular culture surveil and police black sexuality Looking at figures such as Ma Rainey Bishop Eddie L Long J L King and Will Smith he ultimately contends that down low narratives reveal the limits of current understandings of black sexuality

The Wheat and Tares and the Ten Virgins James Elliott, 2021-10-18 The Wheat and Tares and the Ten Virgins are two parables that are not often talked about by theologians bishops and the fivefold ministry of apostles prophets evangelists pastors and teachers And this is due in part in my opinion because there is an obscurity as to who are the tares and the five foolish virgins in those parables that the Lord Jesus is referring to who are not only in the world but also who call the Lord Jesus as their Savior So the tares that I'm going to put a spotlight on are those preachers and false teachers of God's word be they called Pastor Bishop Apostle Elder Father Minister Reverend Dr Reverend Reverend Dr whatever title these tare preachers and false teachers of God's word prefer And of the doctrines the devils that have been sown through them into the body of Christ as well as who are the five foolish virgins out of the Ten who got left behind The Warrior Class Charles

MacArthur,2013-11-19 In Strange Fire bestselling author and pastor John MacArthur chronicles the unsavory history behind the modern Charismatic movement What would God say about those who blatantly misrepresent His Holy Spirit who exchange true worship for chaotic fits of mindless ecstasy who replace the biblical gospel with vain illusions of health and wealth who claim to prophesy in His name yet speak errors and who sell false hope to desperate people for millions of dollars The charismatic movement has always been a breeding ground for scandal greed bad doctrine and all kinds of spiritual chicanery As a movement it is clearly headed the wrong direction And it is growing at an unprecedented rate From the Word of Faith to the New Apostolic Reformation the Charismatic movement is being consumed by the empty promises of the prosperity gospel Too many charismatic celebrities promote a Christianity without Christ a Holy Spirit without holiness And their teaching is having a disastrous influence on a grand scale as large television networks broadcast their heresies to every part of the world In Strange Fire MacArthur lays out a chilling case against the modern Charismatic movement that includes Rejecting its false prophets Speaking out against their errors Showing true reverence to the Holy Spirit Clinging to the Bible as the inerrant authoritative Word of God and the one true standard by which all truth claims must be tested
