Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James Caporaso, Thomas Risse, 2018-08-06 Does the European Union change the domestic politics and institutions of its member states Many studies of EU decisionmaking in Brussels pay little attention to the potential domestic impact of European integration Transforming Europe traces the effects of Europeanization on the EU member states The various chapters based on cutting edge research examine the impact of the EU on national court systems territorial politics societal networks public discourse identity and citizenship norms The European Union the authors find does indeed make a difference even in Germany France and the United Kingdom In many cases EU rules and regulations incompatible with domestic institutions have created pressure for national governments to adapt This volume examines the conditions under which this adaptational pressure has led to institutional change in the member states Developments in Central and East European Politics 3 Stephen White,Judy Batt,Paul G. Lewis,2003

European Politics in Transition Mark Kesselman,2002 This critically acclaimed best selling text offers a comprehensive introduction to the post World War II political systems of Great Britain France Italy Germany and the European Union The concept of European politics in transition is presented through four key themes the role of each country in economic management the interaction of countries within the international order challenges facing European democracies and the political impact of social diversity The Politics of Southern Europe José Magone,2003-02-28 European integration has had a profound impact on the politics of Southern Europe a region that was initially at the margin of the decision making processes of the European Union but is gradually becoming more and more influential This volume offers a comparative overview of modern politics in Spain Portugal Italy and Greece focusing in particular on the process of integration of these countries into the European Union and on the impact of European public policy The author analyzes the development of Southern European political systems from the establishment of democratic governments to the most recent political events looking at each individual system and finding patterns similarities of development as well as differences between them Among the topics examined are the building of institutions the parties and party systems foreign policies the political culture of each country and the recent efforts towards the creation of a space of security and peace in the Mediterranean
