Biafra's War 1967-1970 Al J. Venter, 2016-02-19 Almost half a century has passed since the Nigerian Civil War ended But memories die hard because a million or more people perished in that internecine struggle the majority women and children who were starved to death Biafra's war was modern Africa's first extended conflict It lasted almost three years and was based largely on ethnic by inference tribal grounds It involved on the one side a largely Christian or animist southeastern quadrant of Nigeria which called itself Biafra pitted militarily against the country's more populous and preponderant Islamic north These divisions almost always brutal persist Not a week goes by without reports coming in of Christian communities or individuals persecuted by Islamic zealots It was also a conflict that saw significant Cold War involvement the Soviets and Britain siding and supplying Federal Nigeria with weapons aircraft and expertise and several Western states Portugal South Africa and France especially providing clandestine help to the rebel state For that reason alone this book is an important contribution towards understanding Nigeria's ethnic divisions which are no better today than they were then Biafra was the first of a series of religious wars that threaten to engulf much of Africa Similar conflicts have recently taken place in the Ivory Coast Kenya Southern Sudan the Central African Republic Senegal Cassamance both Congo Republics and elsewhere As the war progressed Biafra also attracted mercenary involvement many of whom arriving from the Congo which had already seen much turmoil Western pilots were hired by Lagos and they flew the first Soviet MiG 17 jet fighters to have played an active role in a Western war Al Venter spent time covering this struggle He left the rebel enclave in December 1969 only weeks before it ended and claims the distinction of being the only foreign correspondent to have been rocketed by both sides first by Biafra's tiny Swedish built Minicon fighter planes while he was on a ship lying at anchor in Warri harbour and thereafter by MiG jets flown by mercenaries Among his colleagues inside the beleaguered territory were the celebrated Italian photographer Romano Cagnoni as well as Frederick Forsyth who originally reported for the BBC and then resigned because of the partisan pro Nigerian stance taken by Whitehall He briefly shared quarters with French photographer Giles Caron who was later killed in Cambodia Prior to that Venter had been working for John Holt in Lagos It is interesting that his office at the time was at Ikeja International Airport Murtala Muhammed today where the second Nigerian army mutiny was plotted and from where it was launched From this perspective he had a proverbial ringside seat of the tribal divisions that followed as hostilities escalated Venter took numerous photos while on this West African assignment both in Nigeria while he was based there and later in Biafra itself Others come from various sources including some from the same mercenary pilots who originally targeted him from the air

Governance in Nigeria post-1999: Revisiting the democratic 'new dawn' of the Fourth Republic Edited by Romola Adeola & Ademola Oluborode Jegede, 2020-03-06 At the start of Nigeria's Fourth Republic on 29 May 1999 there was great optimism as to the emergence of a new democratic future representing a significant break from the political undulations of the past Two decades and four presidential epochs later there is a prevalent question as to how well Nigeria has fared in governance and human rights post 1999 This book revisits the democratic new dawn of the Fourth Republic discussing pertinent matters integral to Nigeria's democratic future post 2019 A History of the Republic of Biafra Samuel Fury Childs Daly, 2020-08-27 The Republic of Biafra lasted for less than three years but the war over its secession would contort Nigeria for decades to come Samuel Fury Childs Daly examines the history of the Nigerian Civil War and its aftermath from an uncommon vantage point the courtroom Wartime Biafra was glutted with firearms wracked by famine and administered by a government that buckled under the weight of the conflict In these dangerous conditions many people survived by engaging in fraud extortion and armed violence When the fighting ended in 1970 these survival tactics endured even though Biafra itself disappeared from the map Based on research using an original archive of legal records and oral histories Daly catalogues how people navigated conditions of extreme hardship on the war front and shows how the conditions of the Nigerian Civil War paved the way for the country's long experience of crime that was to follow Biafra Genocide Al J. Venter, 2018-08-30 One of the great tragedies of Africa is not only the fact that a million people mostly civilians and a large proportion of them children died in one of Africa's first post independence wars but that until it happened the world thought Nigeria was immune from the wasting disease of tribalism It certainly was not because the Biafran War is still the most expansive tribal conflagration that the continent has experienced barring perhaps the ongoing Great Lakes conflict involving the forces of East and West only this time with the British siding with the Soviets Worse some of the religious differences that emerged before and after that dreadful carnage are still with us today During the course of hostilities that lasted almost four years a lot of other shortcomings surfaced in Africa's most populous nation including the kind of corruption that until then had always been linked to countries rich in oil Disunity incompetence and instability from which Nigeria never really recovered also emerged Two bloody army coups followed after the rebels capitulated together with an appalling series of massacres mostly of southern Christians by Muslim northerners Half a century later the slaughter continues I was Born a Slave: 1849-1866 Yuval Taylor, 1999 Between 1760 and 1902 more than 200 book length autobiographies of ex slaves were published together they form the basis for all subsequent African American literature I Was Born a Slave collects the 20 most significant slave narratives They describe whippings torture starvation resistance and hairbreadth escapes slave auctions kidnappings and murders sexual abuse religious confusion the struggle of learning to read and write and the triumphs and difficulties of life as free men and women Many of the narratives such as those of Frederick Douglass and Harriet Jacobs have achieved reputations as masterpieces but some of the lesser known narratives are equally brilliant This unprecedented anthology presents them unabridged providing each one with helpful introductions and annotations to form the most comprehensive volume ever assembled on the lives and writings of the slaves Volume one 1770-1849 includes the narratives of James Albert Ukawsaw Gronniosaw Olaudah Equiano Gustavus Vassa William Grimes Nat Turner Charles Ball Moses Roper Frederick Douglass Lewis and Milton Clarke William Wells Brown and Josiah Henson

I was Born a Slave Yuval Taylor,1999 The narratives in this volume include tales of Africa pirate ships wild animals witches a slave who had ten owners and another who led a rebellion that killed fifty five whites the kidnapping of a white woman and her rescue by a slave the nightmarish tortures of the infamous Mr Gooch the tragicomic experiences of a pair of white slaves and the story of the original Uncle Tom

Growing Up in Slavery Yuval Taylor,2007-02-01 Ten slaves all under the age of 19 tell stories of enslavement brutality and dreams of freedom in this collection culled from full length autobiographies These accounts selected to help teenagers relate to the horrific experiences of slaves their own age living in the not so distant past include stories of young slaves torn from their mothers and families suffering from starvation and being whipped and tortured But these are not all tales of deprivation and violence teenagers will relate to accounts of slaves challenging authority playing games telling jokes and falling in love These stories cover the range of the slave experience from the passage in slave ships across the Atlantic and daily life as a slave both on large plantations and in small city dwellings to escaping slavery and fighting in the Civil War The writings of Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass William Wells Brown Harriet Jacobs Elizabeth Keckley and other lesser known slaves are included
