Corporate Wasteland The Landscape And Memory Of Deindustrialization:

Corporate Wasteland Steven C. High, David W. Lewis, 2007 Through a blend of oral history photographs and interpretive essays Corporate Wasteland encourages readers to look beyond nostalgia as the authors reinterpret our deindustrialised landscape as a historical and imaginative challenge to the ways in which we comprehend and respond to the profound disruptions wrought by globalization

The Deindustrialized World Steven High, Lachlan MacKinnon, Andrew Perchard, 2017-07-20 Since the 1970s the closure of mines mills and factories has marked a rupture in working class lives The Deindustrialized World interrogates the process of industrial ruination from the first impact of layoffs in metropolitan cities suburban areas and single industry towns to the shock waves that rippled outward affecting entire regions countries and beyond Scholars from France Canada Australia the United Kingdom and the United States share personal stories of ruin and ruination and ask others what it means to be working class in a postindustrial world Part 1 examines the ruination of former workplaces and the failing health and injured bodies of industrial workers Part 2 brings to light disparities between rural resource towns and cities where hipster revitalization often overshadows industrial loss Part 3 reveals the ongoing impact of deindustrialization on working people and their place in the new global economy Together the chapters open a window on the lived experiences of people living at ground zero of deindustrialization revealing its layered impacts and examining how workers environmentalists activists and the state have responded to its challenges

Deindustrialisation in Twentieth-Century Europe Stefan Berger, Stefano Musso, Christian Wicke, 2022-11-14 Exploring two large economies which were heavily affected by deindustrialisation in the late twentieth century this book provides insights into the social movements that brought about and also challenged industrial reduction in Europe Both the Ruhr region in Germany and the Northwest of Italy experienced major structural transformation from the 1960s as a result of deindustrialisation With contributions from experts in the field this collection provides a comparative overview of each region examining policy implementation class relations the changing political economy and environmental impact Analysing industrial and post industrial landscapes urban developments and labour relations the authors place their transnational findings within the context of the wider literature on deindustrialisation in the global North A much needed contribution to deindustrialisation studies which have traditionally focused on North America and the UK this book is a useful read for those researching deindustrialisation and the social history of Europe

Voices of Guinness Tim Strangleman, 2019 Introduction the imagined garden The machine in the garden Creating industrial citizens The garden in the machine Remembering the work of the long boom Change at work The ghost in the machine The ruined garden Conclusion reimagining work

Global Garbage Christoph Lindner, Miriam Meissner, 2015-12-14 Global Garbage examines the ways in which garbage in its diverse forms is being produced managed experienced imagined circulated concealed and aestheticized in contemporary urban environments and across different creative and cultural practices The book explores the increasingly complex relationship between globalization and garbage in locations such as Beirut Detroit Hong Kong London Los Angeles Manchester Naples Paris Rio de Janeiro and Tehran In particular the book examines how and under what conditions contemporary imaginaries of excess waste and abandonment perpetuate but also sometimes counter the imbalances of power that are frequently associated with the global metropolitan condition This interdisciplinary collection will appeal to the fields of anthropology architecture film and media studies geography urban studies sociology and cultural analysis

Pennsylvania in Public Memory Carolyn Kitch, 2015-06-26 What stories do we tell about America's once great industries at a time when they are fading from the landscape Pennsylvania in Public Memory attempts to answer that question exploring the emergence of a heritage culture of industry and its loss through the lens of its most representative industrial state Based on news coverage interviews and more than two hundred heritage sites this book traces the narrative themes that shape modern public memory of coal steel railroading lumber oil and agriculture and that collectively tell a story about national as well as local identity in a changing social and economic world

Island Thinking Sophia Davis, 2019-07-30 Island Thinking is a cultural historical and geographical study of Englishness in a key period of cultural transformation in mid twentieth century Britain as the empire shrank back to its insular core The book uses a highly regional focus to investigate the imaginative appeal of islands and boundedness interweaving twentieth century histories of militarisation countryside nature conservation and national heritage to create a thickly textured picture of landscape and history Referred to as an island within an island Suffolk's corner of England provides fascinating stories displaying a preoccupation with vulnerability and threat refuge and safety The book explores the portrayal of the region in mid century rural writing that rediscovered the countryside as well as the area's extensive militarisation during the Second World War It examines various enclosures from the wartime radar project to make Britain an island again to the postwar establishment of secluded nature reserves protecting British birds

Nights below Foord Street Peter Thompson, 2020-02-06 According to its licence plates tourist brochures and commercials Nova Scotia is Canada's Ocean Playground an idyllic vacation spot brimming with traditional cultural experiences Yet this picturesque and welcoming and friendly facade overlooks the province's history of industrial development the impact of resource extraction on its landscape and the effects of its painful and still unfinished period of deindustrialization Recounting Nova Scotia's struggle to come to terms with its extractive and industrial past Nights below Foord Street focuses on the spaces ignored by the province's annual Doers and Dreamers tourist guide Drawing on literary texts by Lynn Coady Leo McKay Sarah Mian and Jonathan Campbell popular television shows such as Trailer Park Boys and films including Blackbird Cottonland and Poor Boy's Game Peter Thompson examines the ways in which contemporary authors filmmakers and artists explore the lingering consequences of the boom and bust cycles of mining and manufacturing As he demonstrates these narratives depict a legacy of environmental exploitation pollution intermittent disasters and labour violence left behind by the industrial era all of which contrast starkly with the romantic and nostalgic portrait of Nova Scotia's industrial heritage promoted in museums monuments and tourist sites As Donald Trump and other populist politicians appeal to working class nostalgia and international attention converges on environmental racism in northern Nova Scotia Nights below Foord Street intervenes into debates over the cultural and social effects of the post industrial economy

Pastoral Cosmopolitanism in Edith Wharton's Fiction Margarida Cadima, 2023-07-11 American novelist Edith Wharton 1862 1937 is best known today for her tales of the city and the experiences of patrician New Yorkers in the Gilded Age This book pushes against the grain of critical orthodoxy by prioritizing other species of spaces in Wharton's work For example how do Wharton's narratives represent the organic profusion of external nature Does the current scholarly fascination with the environmental humanities reveal previously unexamined or overlooked facets of Wharton's craft I propose that what is most striking about her narrative practice is how she utilizes adapts and translates pastoral tropes conventions and concerns to twentieth century American actualities It is no accident that Wharton portrays characters returning to or exploring various natural localities such as private gardens public parks chic mountain resorts monumental ruins or country estate follies Such encounters and adventures prompt us to imagine new relationships with various geographies and the lifeforms that can be found there The book addresses a knowledge gap in Wharton and the environmental humanities especially recent debates in ecocriticism The excavation of Wharton's words and the background of her narratives with an eye to offering an ecocritical reading of her work is what the book focuses on

Cities and the Cultural Economy Thomas A. Hutton, 2015-08-27 The cultural economy forms a leading trajectory of urban development and has emerged as a key facet of globalizing cities Cultural industries include new media digital arts music and film and the design industries and professions as well as allied consumption and spectacle in the city The cultural economy now represents the third largest sector in many metropolitan cities of the West including London Berlin New York San Francisco and Melbourne and is increasingly influential in the development of East Asian cities Tokyo Shanghai Hong Kong and Singapore as well as the mega cities of the Global South e g Mumbai Capetown and S o Paulo Cities and the Cultural Economy provides a critical integration of the burgeoning research and policy literatures in one of the most prominent sub fields of contemporary urban studies Policies for cultural economy are increasingly evident within planning development and place marketing programs requiring large resource commitments but producing on the evidence highly uneven results Accordingly the volume includes a critical review of how the new cultural economy is reshaping urban labour housing and property markets contributing to gentrification and to precarious employment formation as well as to broadly favorable outcomes such as community regeneration and urban vitality The volume acknowledges the important growth dynamics and sustainability of key creative industries Written primarily as a text for upper level undergraduate and Masters students in urban economic and social geography sociology cultural studies and planning this provocative and compelling text will also be of interest to those studying urban land economics architecture landscape architecture and the built environment
