Colonize This! Daisy Hernández, Bushra Rehman, 2019-07-16 Newly revised and updated this landmark anthology offers gripping portraits of American life as seen through the eyes of young women of color It has been decades since women of color first turned feminism upside down exposing the feminist movement as exclusive white and unaware of the concerns and issues of women of color from around the globe Since then key social movements have risen including Black Lives Matter transgender rights and the activism of young undocumented students Social media has also changed how feminism reaches young women of color generating connections in all corners of the country And yet we remain a country divided by race and gender Now a new generation of outspoken women of color offer a much needed fresh dimension to the shape of feminism of the future In Colonize This Daisy Hernandez and Bushra Rehman have collected a diverse lively group of emerging writers who speak to the strength of community and the influence of color to borders and divisions and to the critical issues that need to be addressed to finally reach an era of racial freedom With prescient and intimate writing Colonize This will reach the hearts and minds of readers who care about the experience of being a woman of color and about establishing a culture that fosters freedom and agency for women of all races
