Theodosiou, 2015-12-07 Journey through the early years of Corona with Jason D Antos and Constantine E Theodosiou as they highlight the iconic features that help make up the borough of Queens Nestled between old Newtown today s Elmhurst and the village of Flushing in the borough of Queens lies Corona Blessed with an enchanting landscape the area attracted development as early as 1854 when the West Flushing Land Company sought to create a suburban residential neighborhood in its midst For Corona s cherished way of life represented by Colonial era farms dirt roads and gaslight streetlamps this marked a distinct break from the past Developer Benjamin Hitchcock s novel installment plan system had helped place Corona on the map for good by 1870 laying down a historical precedent for later communities like Forest Hills and Jackson Heights to take shape Before Mets baseball and the US Open were fixtures on the local scene New Yorkers flocked to the National Race Course one of the first such complexes in the entire country for an exciting day at the races Meanwhile in its Corona based factory the Tiffany Glass Company forged distinctive lamps and glassware that in time would become world famous Jackson Heights Jason D. Antos, Constantine E. Theodosiou, 2013 A fascinating part of the melting pot city current day Jackson Heights in Queens New York the neighborhood formerly known as Trains Meadow is shared in images and history of the area from rural farmland to a cultural and economic center in New York At the turn of the 20th century the neighborhood known as Jackson Heights was originally called Trains Meadow a sprawling area covered by acres of farmland and rolling hills Its only inhabitants were homesteaders who lived in their ancient wood framed dwellings with spreads occupied by barns horse stables cabbage patches and beehives Overgrowing populations in Manhattan and Brooklyn led developers to Queens County to transform that landscape into Jackson Heights Headed by Edward Archibald MacDougall the ambitious Queensboro Corporation spent nearly 4 million buying properties molding roads and constructing buildings of great architectural merit Jackson Heights provides an in depth look at the history of America s first garden apartment community with the use of never before seen photographs culled from local archives and private collections Images featured show the neighborhood s progression from rural farmland to the highly populated economic center it is today with memorable businesses like Jahn s Ice Cream Parlor and the cultural splendor along Thirty seventh Avenue and Eighty second Street Flushing Jason D. Antos, 2010-08-02 In the 1890s electric lighting and improved roads were just the beginning of the changes about to take place in Flushing New York Once a rural village of wide open farms and magnificent estates Flushing transformed into a community of more than 200 000 people and quickly became one of the busiest neighborhoods in Queens Flushing explores these dramatic changes with many never before seen images Jason D Antos is the author of three other local history books Whitestone Shea Stadium and Queens

Douglaston-Little Neck Jason D. Antos, 2021 The neighborhoods of Douglaston and Little Neck are located on the northeastern frontier of Queens County The gateway to the north shore of Long Island both towns are linked not only geographically but through an illustrious history that dates back to the time of the Algonquin who called the area Matinecock or Place of the Hill Country In 1906 the Rickert Finlay Realty Company helped develop Douglaston and Little Neck featuring an architectural tapestry of Colonial and Tudor Revivals English cottages and Arts and Crafts style homes Douglaston quickly became a destination for artists and yachting enthusiasts while Little Neck quickly saw its conversion from farmland and quaint yet rustic country stores to a newly developed area of communities and hamlets that exemplified the American dream Today an historic district Douglaston includes homes designed by Josephine Wright Chapman one of the nation s earliest women architects as well as the childhood home of pro tennis legend John McEnroe

Shea Stadium Remembered Matthew Silverman,2019-01-15 Few remember that Shea Stadium and indeed the Mets baseball club itself arose out of a dispute between two oversized egos New York City official Robert Moses and Brooklyn Dodgers owner Walter O Malley While O Malley wanted complete control over a new stadium and all of its concessions in Brooklyn Moses insisted that the stadium be built by the city in Queens and leased to the Dodgers The impasse led to the Dodgers following the Giants out to the West Coast where The City of Los Angeles granted O Malley all of the concessions he had sought in New York With now no National League team in the New York area the National League office awarded a new franchise to the city in 1960 on conditional that it fund and build a new stadium which the Mets and later the AFL Jets would lease The stadium was named in honor of William Shea the person most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York Over its forty four year existence Shea Stadium witnessed a colorful cavalcade of sporting and entertainment events all detailed in this lively skimable tribute to a memorable New York landmark It s all here the memorable games the unforgettable characters such as Tom Seaver Joe Willie Namath and Seinfeld buddy Keith Hernandez and even the solemn moments such as when Shea was used as a staging area for first responders after 9 11 By the time of its demolition in 2008 the Mets had played more games at Shea than the Dodgers had ever played at Ebbets Field and the stadium had hosted seven National League Championship Series four World Series three Jets playoff games and the American Football League Championship game in 1968
