Cadences Of Home Preaching Among Exiles:

Cadences of Home Walter Brueggemann, 1997-01-01 A powerful perspective about preaching Cadences of Home suggests that sermons must speak to those who are lost and searching for their rightful home Brueggemann argues for a dynamic transformation of preaching to proclaim to the world that there is a home for all people The Lived Experience of

Palliative Chaplains Caroline Yih, 2024-06-21 This book explores the unique challenges of disenfranchisement faced by Christian chaplains working within the secular and pluralistic context of contemporary healthcare The case study focuses on practitioners in Hong Kong and showcases the utilisation of interpretative phenomenological analysis IPA as a fruitful basis for practical theological endeavours The role and perspective of the palliative chaplain as spiritual care specialist is examined along with the tension that exists with the cultural and organisational context in which they operate The chapters examine how end of life care practitioners can often face marginalisation oppression vulnerability and disorientation among other difficult experiences that the author unites under a general theme of homelessness The book contributes to discussions regarding fuller integration of the spiritual dimension within a holistic vision of end of life care provision It will be of particular interest to scholars of practical theology and chaplaincy as well as palliative medicine Christ in a Choppie

Box Michael Sadgrove, 2015-10-01 An edited collection of sermons preached by Michael Sadgrove during his time as Dean of Durham 2003 2015 Thought provoking and inspiring Foreword by Justin Welby Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit A Biblical Theology of Exile Daniel L. Smith-Christopher, The Christian church continues to seek ethical and spiritual models from the period of Israel's monarchy and has avoided the gravity of the Babylonian exile Against this tradition the author argues that the period of focus for the canonical construction of biblical thought is precisely the exile Here the voices of dissent arose and articulated words of truth in the context of failed power

An Improbable Feast - the surprising dynamic of hospitality at the heart of multifaith chaplaincy Geoff Boyce, 2011-01-05 How are we all going to live together in spite of all our differences Editor Geoff Boyce has collected anecdotes from fellow members of his non Aboriginal church congregation shedding light on the yawning gap between Australia's First and Second Peoples while also revealing their underlying yearning for justice and mutuality Back cover

Practicing Exile Marc H. Ellis, Faith and struggle pain and promise As a post Holocaust Jewish thinker Marc Ellis inhabits the land between homes that we call exile In this intensely personal work he explores how the religious landscape looks from the perspective of an exile and how religious searching continually leads away from the domestic comforts of received Jewish and Christian platitudes and into new struggles for religious authenticity At once a memoir and an examination of conscience Ellis s autobiographical starting points spark reflections on Jewish Christian relations liberation theology religion and politics and issues of justice in Israel and Palestine His experiences also occasion meditations on solitude and solidarity gratitude and alienation memory and responsibility They exemplify how religiously committed persons though exiled forever from yesterday s certitudes can yet practice covenantal fidelity In the end for Ellis and for the reader there is no going back Exile is not simply a fact it is a religious imperative At stake is the integrity of the religious search as a truly ecumenical adventure

The Sacred Place of Exile Carla Brewington,2013-02-01 The person of exile may be considered a wanderer a nomad a refugee or a rebel People of exile can be the marginalized the disenfranchised the outcast the left out and the pushed away Different terms are used but what defines them all is separation Exile is a dangerous and dominant theme that runs through Scripture through the lives of the people of Israel and through the universal church Women who have known the sacred place of exile are uniquely qualified to form a women s mission The case is made for a momentum shift in missiological thinking There is a desperate and aching need for a women s mission which could lead the way to a women s missionary movement The emergence of such a mission movement is indeed fraught with skepticism and suspicion from many of those inside the church and leaders in the missionary world But the radical disruptive costly following of Jesus to those outside the camp is our calling

Biblical History and Israel S Past Megan Bishop Moore,Brad E. Kelle,2011-05-17 Although scholars have for centuries primarily been interested in using the study of ancient Israel to explain illuminate and clarify the biblical story Megan Bishop Moore and Brad E Kelle describe how scholars today seek more and more to tell the story of the past on its own terms drawing from both biblical and extrabiblical sources to illuminate ancient Israel and its neighbors without privileging the biblical perspective Biblical History and Israel s Past provides a comprehensive survey of how study of the Old Testament and the history of Israel has changed since the middle of the twentieth century Moore and Kelle discuss significant trends in scholarship trace the development of ideas since the 1970s and summarize major scholars viewpoints issues and developments

West Coast Mission Ross A. Lockhart,2024-10-15 Vancouver British Columbia now reports no religion as its leading religious identity putting it in the vanguard of a trend happening across North America What does this mean for the Christian communities that continue to worship work and witness in this mostly secular city West Coast Mission seeks to uncover where Christianity in Vancouver is headed now that it is a minority belief system in the broader culture Drawing on a five year study of fourteen sites including church plants congregations and para church agencies Ross Lockhart describes how Christians in Vancouver are organizing their communities shaping their beliefs and expressing themselves in mission He finds that rather than simply declining Christianity in the city is adapting in response to immigration decolonization pluralism and social crises Christians are focusing on friendship and social connection in a culture that identifies as spiritual not religious on affordable housing as a missional concern on the communal value of environmental stewardship and on sharing the gospel in light of the destructive legacies of colonialism and residential schools West Coast Mission explores the evolving spectrum of religious identity in Vancouver and the significant cultural shifts taking place in how Christian mission and witness are approached in a secular city
