

The book cover features a warm, orange-toned background. At the top, a green scalloped border frames the title. Below the title, a dark green horizontal band contains the subtitle. The main image is a photograph of several ristras (dried chili pepper strings) hanging in front of a window with a green frame. The ristras are in various stages of drying, with some showing vibrant red and others appearing more brown and shriveled. The overall aesthetic is rustic and traditional.
