

Cadillac Service . . .

The Cadillac Owner Protection Policy has been developed so that you can be sure that your car receives specialized care and attention at the lowest possible cost. Economy of operation can only be attained by proper preventive maintenance service. Authorized Cadillac Service Stations are in a position to offer you the ultimate in servicing your car because their service personnel have the advantages of:

1. Specialized Cadillac Training at General Motors Training Centers.
2. Special tools and equipment designed for Cadillac products.
3. Genuine Cadillac Parts that are designed and built for the product.
4. Factory product information and cooperation that contribute to efficient service and mechanical procedures.

The value of preventive maintenance has become a recognized fact in vehicle operation. The proper care and maintenance of your new car will protect your investment, avoid high cost repairs and result in lasting satisfaction with your new Cadillac.
