Their short honeymoon results in a baby, but on the birth of her daughter Joy, Esther's world falls apart. Esther's dying mother confesses to a dark secret that she has kept to herself for twenty years: Esther is not her natural daughter but the result of an exchange of babies after her own child was stillborn. Esther's real mother was forced to give up her baby to an orphanage by her furious family, who were incensed about the unsuitability of their daughter's lover. And Joy's birth makes the reason clear. Harshly rejected by Monty and with the man Esther believed was her father breathing fire and damnation, she takes her precious baby and leaves everything and everyone she's ever known, determined to fend for herself and her child.
