Compassionate Caregiving Practical Help And Spiritual Encouragement:

Compassionate Caregiving Lois D. Knutson, 2007-06-01 Spiritual and Practical Help From a Caregiver Most caregivers today have no training for the role into which they are thrust Having been the primary caregiver for her mother Lois Knutson draws on not only her years of experience but also her professional training to offer encouragement and assistance to caregivers Because she knows the situations that weigh down caregivers Knutson gently builds them up as they continue to care for their elderly loved ones In addition to practical tips readers will find ways to care for themselves Subjects addressed in Compassionate Caregiving include how to balance work and caregiving when and how to find home healthcare or care facilities long distance caregiving how to provide for the dying and much more Christians have Crisis?

UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH Judith Isaacs-Herrig, M.Ed QIDP, 2018-07-29 Of course Christians have crisis As human beings we are surrounded by temptation we all make mistakes and we all suffer with trials in our lives Unfortunately there are well intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful This book is a resource for ministry leaders parents teachers and caregivers regarding mental illness chronic pain abortion abuse and addictions It also covers marital and family issues There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs would you know what to say to them What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied or their adult child is being abused by their spouse Would you know how to advise them Are your words subjective Are they productive Are your words factual and scriptural As a church we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God We need to have compassion for the misunderstood As a church we need to be knowledgeable of current fads common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately As a church we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help

Appreciative Healthcare Practice: A guide to compassionate, person-centred care Dr Gwilym Wyn Roberts, Dr Andrew Machon, 2015-07-08 Written by a leading healthcare academic and an accredited international business coach this book takes a new approach to one of the most crucial issues in healthcare how to care for patients appreciatively responsively and compassionately In the light of the findings of the Francis Report 2013 and at a time when healthcare services are under enormous pressure there is a clear and urgent need for such a book Despite the challenges of ill health the authors demonstrate that the opportunity is there for any healthcare practitioner to draw out what the patient needs and desires in line with the patient's own values purposes and beliefs This approach seeks to alleviate suffering and allows the patient to be more empowered and motivated to change discovering choice and possibility in times of adversity In this way the practitioner can help the patient increase their own resilience and resourcefulness At the same time the practitioner discovers their own ability to self care and self manage Aimed at healthcare students and practitioners at all levels Appreciative Healthcare Practice will provide a valuable and supportive learning resource for a wide range of individuals involved in caring Contents include Introduction Carers stories Compassionate and dignified care Professionalism on becoming a professional Applying appreciative inquiry in practice and education Creativity and care Applying the three eye model to healthcare Mindful healthcare practice The appreciative care worker and coach The Art and Science of
