De Koningin Maria Van Hongarije Landvoogdes Der Nederlanden:

A Financial Revolution in the Habsburg Netherlands James D. Tracy, 2023-09-01 This book delves into the financial revolution that took place in the Habsburg Netherlands focusing specifically on the County of Holland from 1515 to 1565 It investigates the evolution of public debt with a particular emphasis on the introduction and widespread use of life term and perpetual annuities These financial instruments which became central to state borrowing were initially issued by the provincial parliaments and funded by taxes such as the annual bede subsidy The study outlines how during the 1540s the government was able to induce provincial parliaments to create new taxes and annuities sparking the development of a voluntary market for state annuities in Holland Through a detailed examination of fiscal records and market practices the book highlights how these innovations reshaped the financial landscape of the region It explores how Holland despite being smaller and less populous than other provinces like Flanders became a leader in adopting long term public debt instruments In the 1550s ordinary citizens willingly invested unprecedented sums in state annuities marking a significant shift in public finance The study further traces the subsequent history of long term debt in the Dutch Republic linking these early developments to the financial revolution in England which would follow in the late 17th century This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985

Holland Under Habsburg Rule, 1506-1566 James D. Tracy, 2024-06-04 Under what conditions were limited forms of self government possible in medieval and early modern Europe While many historians have sought an answer by investigating the development of parliamentary institutions in emerging national monarchies and the wider autonomy enjoyed by various city states within their own borders James D Tracy concentrates instead on a relatively neglected phenomenon at an intermediate level of political organization the self governing province Focusing on the province of Holland during the reigns of Charles V and Philip II 1506 1566 Tracy argues convincingly that Holland effectively underwent an apprenticeship in self government The seven provinces of the Dutch Republic among which Holland was the richest and most populous were the first in history to govern themselves by a consensus among their towns and nobles The foundations for this internal cohesion were put in place long before the Dutch Revolt first by medieval provincial dynasties then by the dukes of Burgundy and finally by the House of Habsburg At the turn of the sixteenth century Holland was urbanized to a surprising degree with over forty percent of its population residing in some thirty small and mid sized towns Forced by external threats to rise above their economic rivalries the towns joined together through the forum of the provincial parliament or States of Holland which came to assume a primary role in the management of public finances While noting that the growing autonomy of Holland did not make the Dutch Revolt inevitable Tracy points out that the revolt could hardly have succeeded without provinces that already had a tradition of managing their own affairs In the broader context of European political institutions the circumstances that permitted the provincial states to assume many of the functions of government illustrate not only the capacity for self government but also the formation of genuine body politics This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990

Jan van Eyck and Portugal's 'Illustrious Generation' Barbara von Barghahn, 2013-12-31 This book investigates Jan Van Eyck s patronage by the Crown of Portugal and his role as diplomat painter for the Duchy of Burgundy following his first voyage to Lisbon in 1428 1429 when he painted two portraits of Infanta Isabella who became the third wife of Philip the Good in 1430 New portrait identifications are provided for the Ghent Altarpiece 1432 and its iconographical prototype the lost Fountain of Life These altarpieces are analysed with regard to King Joao I s conquest of Ceuta achieved by his sons who were hailed as an illustrious generation Strong family ties between the dynastic houses of Avis and Lancaster explain Lusitania s sustained fascination with Arthurian lore and the Grail quest Several chapters of this book are overlaid with a chivalric veneer A second secret mission to Portugal in 1437 by Jan van Eyck is postulated and this diplomatic visit is related to Prince Henry the Navigator s expedition to Tangier and King Duarte s attempts to forge an alliance with Alfonso V of Aragon Late Eyckian commissions are reviewed in the light of this ill fated crusade and additional new portraits are identified The most significant artist of Renaissance Flanders appears to have been patronized as much by the House of Avis as by the Duchy of Burgundy Barbara von Barghahn is Professor of Art History at George Washington University and a specialist in the art history of Portugal Spain and their colonial dominions as well as Flanders In 1993 she was conferred O Grao Comendador in the Portuguese Order of Prince Henry the Navigator She has spent nearly a decade completing research about Jan van Eyck s diplomatic visits to the Iberian Peninsula

Acta Historiae Neerlandicae IX R. Baetens, H. Balthazar, H. Van Dijk, Rosemary Duke, P. J. Van Kessel, D. J. Roorda, Nicolette Van Santen-Mout, E. Stols, K. W. Swart, B. A. Sijes, C. A. Tamse, 2012-12-06 In the Survey of Recent Historical Works which according to custom concludes this IXth volume of the Acta is a notice of the recent Report of the Dutch research with suggestions for future development Such a report could easily be classified as an attempt to bring pressure to bear on financial resources for support of a somewhat neglected branch of scientific effort indeed as a symptom of the current disease of notatititis A recent special issue Regeren door notas of the periodical Beleid and Maatschappij March April 1976 discusses this severe Dutch epidemic of official note writing for any purpose on any matter at any time by any sort of official committee to any sort of official body But even if such were the only reason for the production of this Report which indeed it is not the Report will stand on its own feet as significant and of consequence In general however this Report makes sad reading It would seem that Dutch historical research and historiography lags far behind
