Counseling The Older Adult A Training Manual In Clinical Gerontology:

Counseling the Older Adult Patricia Alpaugh McDonald, Margaret Haney, 1988-08-15 An invaluable step by step guide for understanding the basic problems and concerns of the growing population of adults over the age of 65 Based on years of clinical research and testing this book provides a thorough review of critical information on older adults the aging process and mental health issues Organized into a useful workbook format the book is filled with brief lectures quizzes exercises and sample forms These training materials are designed to help counselors build the interpersonal skills needed to provide aid and comfort for senior citizens requiring psychological services

Counselling and Psychotherapy with Older People in Care Felicity Chapman, 2017-12-14 The global population is ageing rapidly yet there is a shortage of skilled professionals able to support the wellbeing of older people in care Older people can be more vulnerable to mental health issues such as loneliness anxiety grief loss and cognitive changes and need therapeutic support that addresses their specific needs and conditions This supportive guide for psychotherapists counsellors and other professionals working with older people addresses the growing demand for mental health services for older adults It covers a range of issues that arise within this demographic including residential living the referral process assessment and engagement and attitudes towards ageing while contextualising these issues within larger social and political frameworks The author describes specific interventions such as Narrative Therapy Reminiscence Therapy Acceptance and Commitment Therapy and Cognitive Behavioural Therapy with practical case studies woven in throughout the book

Counseling Individuals Through the Lifespan Daniel W. Wong, Kimberly R. Hall, Lucy Wong Hernandez, 2025-07-08 Counseling Individuals Through the Lifespan Third Edition introduces students to the fundamentals of the counseling process during each stage of human development

Aging Education Nieli Langer, Terry Tirrito, 2004 Aging Education provides educators in aging studies with a unique text that responds to the paucity of instructional strategies and teaching materials By developing and explaining a multidisciplinary approach to working with older adults in areas related to health education ethics law cultural competency for a multicultural population translating social policy into practice spirituality and human services the editors provide an imaginative and thought provoking unmet need for gerontology educators by providing them with teaching and practice strategies in aging education

The Oxford Handbook of Counseling Psychology Elizabeth M. Altmaier, Jo-Ida C. Hansen, 2012 Recognized experts in theory research and practice review and analyze historical achievements in research and practice from counseling psychology as well as outline exciting agendas for the near future for the newest domains of proficiencies and expertise

Gerontological Social Work Supervision Carlton Munson, Ann Burack Weiss, Frances C Brennan, 2014-02-25 This unique book clearly depicts a need for supervision in gerontological social work settings and provides a framework for approaching supervision Grounded in two distinct bodies of literature social work supervision and gerontological social work this important book thoroughly examines present gerontological practice and principles and focuses on the stages and styles of helping and teaching case workers to improve agency efficiency Gerontological Social Work Supervision assumes some gerontological knowledge and experience with aging on the part of the supervisor yet provides an abundance of informative and practical methods to aid agency success rates with their clients The authors discuss the supervisory position as a positive asset in all aspects of case work and management Throughout the chapters the value of a supervisor is compounded whether the supervisor is helping a worker in seeing a broader scope of the field of social work with the elderly providing guidance through gray areas of ethics or teaching practice skills for work with individuals groups or families the need for an involved and prepared case worker supervisor becomes increasingly clear through the theories and scenarios presented Extensive examples and helpful considerations make this an invaluable book for agency supervisors and workers An entire chapter is devoted to providing supervision in the educational arena promoting a greater awareness of gerontological social work in students preparing for the field The appendices are packed with lists of additional works on supervision in social work bibliographies of selected readings in case management entitlement long term care and family caregiving
