Boone,David L. Kurtz,2009-12-30 Opening new doors of possibility can be difficult Contemporary Business 13e 2010 Update Edition gives students the business language they need to feel confident in taking the first steps toward becoming successful business majors and successful businesspeople As with every good business though the patterns of innovation and excellence established at the beginning remain steadfast The goals and standards of Boone Kurtz Contemporary Business remain intact and focused on excellence as always The Myth of Excellence Fred Crawford,Ryan Mathews,2007-12-18 The Undiscovered Consumer and the Mistake of Universal Excellence What do customers really want And how can companies best serve them Fred Crawford and Ryan Mathews set off on what they describe as an expedition into the commercial wilderness to find the answers What they discovered was a new consumer one whom very few companies understand much less manufacture products for or sell products or services to These consumers are desperately searching for values a scarce resource in our rapidly changing and challenging world And increasingly they are turning to business to reaffirm these values As one consumer put it I can find value everywhere but can t find values anywhere Crawford and Mathews s initial inquiries eventually grew into a major research study involving more than 10 000 consumers interviews with executives from scores of leading companies around the world and dozens of international client engagements Their conclusion Most companies priding themselves on how well they know their customers aren t really listening to them at all Consumers are fed up with all the fuss about world class performance and excellence What they are aggressively demanding is recognition respect trust fairness and honesty Believing that they are still in a position to dictate the terms of commercial engagement businesses have bought into the myth of excellence the clearly false and destructive theory that a company ought to be great at everything it does that is all the components of every commercial transaction price product access experience and service This is always a mistake because the predictable outcome is that the company ends up world class at nothing not well differentiated and therefore not thought of by consumers at the moment of need Instead Crawford and Mathews suggest that companies engage in Consumer Relevancy a strategy of dominating in one element of a transaction differentiating on a second and being at industry par i e average on the remaining three It s not necessary for businesses to equally invest time and money on all five attributes and their customers don t want them to Imagine the confusion if Tiffany Co started offering deep discounts on diamonds and McDonald s began selling free range chicken and tofu The Myth of Excellence provides a blueprint for companies seeking to offer values based products and services and shows how to realize the commercial opportunities that exist just beyond their current grasp opportunities to reduce operating costs boost bottom line profitability and most important begin to engage in a meaningful dialogue with customers Inside Flyer ,2010 Guerrilla Travel Tactics Jay Conrad Levinson,Theo Brandt-Sarif,2004 Annotation Entrepreneurs and professionals are often neglected by travel suppliers when it comes to favourable pricing Guerilla Travel Tactics presents independent business travellers with a clear step by step plan for saving time and money when travelling at their own expense The upbeat approach of Guerilla Travel Tactics will instill confidence in the business traveller to conquer soaring travel costs Packed with inside information the book contains topics such as getting the lowest possible air fares finding hidden discounts at hotels using the internet and credit cards to save money and buying only the travel insurance that is needed Best Life ,2006-07 Best Life magazine empowers men to continually improve their physical emotional and financial well being to better enjoy the most rewarding years of their life The Advocate ,2006
