Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span - E-Book Carole Lium Edelman, Elizabeth Connelly Kudzma, 2021-10-20 Selected for Doody's Core Titles 2024 with Essential Purchase designation in Patient Education Master health promotion for all ages and population groups Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span 10th Edition provides comprehensive coverage of leading health promotion concepts from assessment to interventions to application Its lifespan approach addresses patients unique needs with case studies and care plans presented within an assessment framework based on Gordon's Functional Health Patterns Addressing each age and stage of development this market leading text covers the latest research and trends in health promotion and disease prevention for diverse population groups Coverage of growth and development addresses health promotion concepts for each age and each stage of development through the lifespan Case studies present realistic situations with questions that challenge you to apply key concepts to further develop clinical judgment Think About It clinical scenarios at the beginning of each chapter include questions to encourage clinical judgment Research for Evidence Based Practice boxes summarize current health promotion studies showing the links between research theory and practice Hot Topics boxes introduce significant issues trends and controversies in health promotion Separate chapters on population groups the individual family and community highlight the unique aspects of assessment and health promotion for each group Quality and Safety Scenario boxes focus on QSEN related competencies with examples of health promotion Innovative Practice boxes outline unique and creative health promotion programs and projects currently being implemented Health and Social Determinants Health Equity boxes address cultural perspectives relating to planning care NEW Greater emphasis on health equity highlights the need to make health promotion accessible to all NEW Increased focus on diversity and inclusion better reflects the communities being served NEW Veteran s health content is incorporated throughout as appropriate NEW Discussions of Healthy People 2030 initiatives and objectives address national health issues and priorities NEW Updated diagnosis terminology includes ICNP diagnoses or patient problems NEW Affordable Care Act references are more general to reflect changing politics Race and Ethnicity Kathleen Odell Korgen, Maxine P. Atkinson, 2024-11-21 Race and Ethnicity Sociology in Action is an innovative text that combines comprehensive coverage of race and ethnicity content with active learning exercises seamlessly integrated into the chapters The book is written by a team of experienced instructors who use active learning techniques in their own classrooms These contributors expertly weave together content material active learning exercises discussion questions real world examples of sociologists in action and information on careers that use sociology The Second Edition includes updated data figures and examples as well as new information on many topics including interracial relationships immigrant groups diversity among Asian Americans racial discrimination in housing and building coalitions for racial justice Continent, 1922 The Interior, 1922 Issues for Jan 12 1888 Jan 1889 include monthly Magazine supplement Refuge and Resilience Laura Simich, Lisa Andermann, 2014-06-05 Taking an interdisciplinary approach and focusing on the social and psychological resources that promote resilience among forced migrants this book presents theory and evidence about what keeps refugees healthy during resettlement The book draws on contributions from cultural psychiatry anthropology ethics nursing psychiatric epidemiology sociology and social work Concern about immigrant mental health and social integration in resettlement countries has given rise to public debates that challenge scientists and policy makers to assemble facts and solutions to perceived problems Since the 1980s refugee mental health research has been productive but arguably overly focused on mental disorders and problems rather than solutions Social science perspectives are not well integrated with medical science and treatment which is at odds with social reality and underlies inadequacy and fragmentation in policy and service delivery Research and practice that contribute to positive refugee mental health from Canada and the U S show that refugee mental health promotion must take into account social and policy contexts of immigration and health care in addition to medical issues Despite traumatic experiences most refugees are not mentally ill in a clinical sense and those who do need medical attention often do not receive appropriate care As recent studies show social and cultural determinants of health may play a larger role in refugee health and adaptation outcomes than do biological factors or pre migration experiences This book s goal therefore is to broaden the refugee mental health field with social and cultural perspectives on resilience and mental health Racist America Joe R. Feagin, 2014-01-21 This third edition of Joe R Feagin s Racist America is significantly revised and updated with an eye toward racism issues arising regularly in our contemporary era This edition incorporates more than two hundred recent research studies and reports on U S racial issues that update and enhance all the last edition s chapters It expands the discussion and data on concepts such as the white racial frame and systemic racism from research studies by Feagin and his colleagues The author has further polished the book to make it yet more readable for undergraduates including eliminating repetitive materials adding headings and more cross referencing and adding new examples anecdotes and narratives about contemporary racism
