Divine Callings Richard N. Pitt, 2012-02 One of the unique aspects of the religious profession is the high percentage of those who claim to be called by God to do their work This call is particularly important within African American Christian traditions Divine Callings offers a rare sociological examination of this markedly understudied phenomenon within black ministry Richard N Pitt draws on over 100 in depth interviews with Black Pentecostal ministers in the Church of God in Christ both those ordained and licensed and those aspiring to examine how these men and women experience and pursue the call Viewing divine calling as much as a social process as it is a spiritual one Pitt delves into the personal stories of these individuals to explore their work as active agents in the process of fulfilling their calling In some cases those called cannot find pastoral work due to gender discrimination lack of clergy positions and educational deficiencies Pitt looks specifically at how those who have not obtained clergy positions understand their call exploring the influences of psychological experience the congregational acceptance of their call and their response to the training process He emphasizes how those called reconceptualize clericalism in terms of who can be called how that call has to be certified and what those called are meant to do offering insight into how social actors adjust to structural constraints

Church Ushers' Manual Willis Otis Garrett, 1924 A Manual for Ushers Gladys Alexander Jennings, 1990* Ushering with a Mission VICTOR L. DAVIS, 2012-10 As we enter our church the first person we often see is the usher While many may look at the position of usher as simply a social one it can be so much more In Ushering with a Mission author Victor L Davis presents the first comprehensive guide specifically addressed to the needs of the usher The traditional approach to ushering focused on the task of meeting seating and greeting worshippers The typical training manual addressed techniques ushers should use in carrying out those duties Davis s Ushering with a Mission goes a step further and emphasizes the importance of disciplining the individual usher Ushering is viewed as a ministry rather than a committee or board activity The ministry of ushering is approached from a Christ centered biblical perspective Ushering is not something we simply do because It s our Sunday to usher We do it because it is a lifestyle resulting from the overflow of the Spirit filled life Ushering with a Mission stresses the importance of Bible study prayer and personal evangelism with nonbelievers Ushers will find fellowship with other believers in the Body of Christ as they explore ways to fulfill the great commission and commandment of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ
