The EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment Alexandr Svetlicinii, I-Ju Chen, 2024-12-11 This book discusses the major features of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment (CAI) and its likely impact on investment liberalisation in China, Europe's largest trading partner. The principal aim of the book is to evaluate the progress of the investment liberalisation efforts pursued by the negotiators of the CAI. Part I: Geopolitical Origins and Negotiations of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment examines the interests, motivations, and expectations of the parties during the negotiation process and following the agreement in principle on the CAI. Part II: Substantive Issues of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment considers specific focus areas that are critical for the mutual opening of the European and Chinese markets for foreign investors. Part III: Dispute Resolution Mechanisms of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment reviews the applicability and effectiveness of the available dispute settlement and treaty enforcement mechanisms provided for in the CAI, including investor-state dispute settlement, state-to-state dispute settlement, and non-adversarial methods. The book offers a combination of theoretical perspectives that will be of interest to international economic law scholars and provides practical insights on how the CAI is likely to shape the investment landscape for European businesses in China. Between Indigenous and Settler Governance Lisa Ford, Tim Rowse, 2012-11-12 Between Indigenous and Settler Governance addresses the history, current development, and future of Indigenous self-governance in four settler colonial nations: Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and the United States. Bringing together emerging scholars and leaders in the field of Indigenous law and legal history, this collection offers a long-term view of the legal, political, and administrative relationships between Indigenous collectivities and nation-states. Placing historical contingency and complexity at the center of analysis, the papers collected here examine in detail the process by which settler states both dissolved Indigenous jurisdictions and left spaces often unwittingly for Indigenous survival and corporate recovery. They emphasise the promise and the limits of modern opportunities for Indigenous self-governance whilst showing how all the players in modern settler colonialism build on a shared and multifaceted past.

Indigenous tradition is not the only source of the principles and practices of indigenous self determination the essays in this book explore some ways that the legal philosophical and economic structures of settler colonial liberalism have shaped opportunities for indigenous autonomy Between Indigenous and Settler Governance will interest all those concerned with Indigenous peoples in settler colonial nations
