policy thinking about what we need to do The timing is good because the impact of this growing segment of society will have major repercussions on health care for the next 50 70 years Stephan Verderber Ph D A comprehensive guide to designing housing for the world s aging population The dilemma of helping older people maintain their independence through better housing with services is growing This book presents innovative solutions for those who create and provide housing for the world s increasingly longer living population By focusing on three specific housing and service arrangements it offers alternatives that provide greater freedom of choice than the current living arrangements that exist today It presents selected examples of housing and service solutions from the US Sweden Denmark and the Netherlands to stimulate thinking about the possibilities of community based service models Housing Design for an Increasingly Older Population looks at a trio of options for housing the oldest old the Dutch Apartment Condo for Life Model AFL decentralized Small Green Houses and the provision of enhanced personal and health care for people who want to stay in their own home It offers unique and eye opening chapters covering what older people want what age changes affect independence demographics and living arrangements how long term care is defined concepts and objectives for housing the frail care giving and management practices that avoid an institutional lifestyle innovative case studies programs that encourage staying at home with service assistance therapeutic use of outdoor spaces how technology will help people stay independent and more Based on the author s numerous conversations with other experts as well as his examinations of high quality settings from Northern Europe and the US Building case study examples showcase innovative and compassionate solutions In depth coverage of three major systems that work Examines successful programs such as PACE Friendly Cities NORC and the Village to Village Network to demonstrate the progress made in helping older frail people stay in their own homes for as long as possible Housing Design for an Increasingly Older Population Redefining Assisted Living for the Mentally and Physically Frail is an important book for those who create design and manage assisted living and skilled nursing facilities as well as for those who set policies regarding health and personal care for our world s aging society Community Livability Fritz Wagner, Roger W. Caves, 2012-06-25 What is a livable community How do you design and develop one What does government at all levels need to do to support and nurture the cause of livable communities Using a blend of theory and practice experts in the field look at evidence from international state and local perspectives to explore what is meant by the term livable communities Chapters examine the various influencing factors such as the effect and importance of transportation options alternatives to the elderly the significance of walkability as a factor in developing a livable and healthy community the importance of good open space providing for human activity and health restorative benefits the importance of coordinated land use and transportation planning and the relationship between livability and quality of life While much of the discussion of this topic is usually theoretical and abstract Wagner and Caves use case studies from North America Brazil and the United Kingdom to provide substantive examples of initiatives implemented across the world This book fills an important gap in the literature on livable communities and at the same time assists policy officials professionals and academics in their quest to develop livable communities Introduction to Housing Katrin B. Anacker, Andrew T. Carswell, Sarah D. Kirby, 2025-06-11 This foundational text on housing tenure housing policy homelessness and housing in a global context has been thoroughly updated to reflect changes in the United States during and after the COVID 19 pandemic This third edition delves into the complexities of housing and related issues to provide a deep understanding of housing s relationship to national economic factors and housing policies It features individual chapters authored by experts in the field offering insights into the physical social psychological economic and policy dimensions affecting the current housing landscape both in the United States and internationally while proposing solutions to the challenges presented This book will appeal to faculty and students in a variety of housing related courses and is an essential resource for housing researchers policymakers and practitioners

Aging Independently Klaus Warner Schaie, 2003 This volume is based on the conference Aging in the Community Living Arrangements and Mobility organised by the German Centre for Research on Aging at the University of Heidelberg in cooperation with Pennsylvania State University It explores the similarities and differences of living arrangements and outdoor mobility in both cultures and the impact on older persons roles in community life and sustainable community development Considers the future of aging theoretically from an environmental gerontology perspective and practically in terms of available technology the central tenet of this volume is that future indoor and outdoor environments will become much more intertwined than is the case today Merging the concerns of living arrangements and mobility this volume leads us to a new understanding of distance and nearness even in the presence for example of severe chronic illness Aging America and Transportation Joseph F. Coughlin, Lisa A. D'Ambrosio, 2012-01-20 Recommended CHOICE Current Reviews for Academic Libraries Coughlin and D'Ambrosio s edited volume is a welcome contribution to highlighting this issue for gerontologists The collection is an informative and useful reference for students researchers practitioners planners and policy analysts The Gerontologist This solution focused volume fills a gap in the literature by addressing the key issues around mobility and transportation for the aging Baby Boomer generation issues that will be significantly different than those of previous generations of older adults This new generation many of whom will continue to work past the traditional retirement age and expect to pursue an active lifestyle may have to confront new transportation technology the need to use public transportation and ways to continue driving safely as their eyesight fades and reaction time slows down This volume examines many of the issues faced by policymakers transportation officials vehicle manufacturers health and human services professionals and aging adults themselves as the largest generation prepares to enter late adulthood The volume s editors are both at the MIT AgeLab whose multi disciplinary team designs develops and deploys innovations to enhance quality of life for aging populations Through the contributions of a diverse group of theorists and practitioners including recommendations from the National Older Driver Safety Advisory Council a collaboration between AARP s Driver Safety Program and the MIT

AgeLab the book discusses several key topics pertinent to Aging America and transportation Among them are the changing demographics of the population how this generation s lifestyle choices affect mobility technology trends in private vehicles changes in the infrastructure and transportation system the new older driver and issues of safety and education among older drivers This book also explores practical solutions and strategies such as new transportation options and innovations that will significantly impact the future of mobility for older adults for keeping these seniors active and mobile well into their later years Key Features uol Focuses on the unique mobility needs of the aging Baby Boomer generation Provides practical solutions and strategies for policy changes to enhance the mobility of older adults Examines issues faced by policymakers transportation officials vehicle manufacturers health and human services professionals and aging adults Discusses strategies for updating the infrastructure and transportation system driving safety education for older drivers and trends in private vehicle innovations
