Chinas Special Economic Zones Policies Problems And Prospects:

China's Special Economic Zones C. H. Chai, 1986 This volume analyses the historical economic political geographical legal planning and management aspects of the zones and discusses their original motivations current problems and future prospects

Pioneering Economic Reform in China's Special Economic Zones Weiping Wu, 2018-08-17 First published in 1999 this volume assessed the economic situation of Shenzhen in Guangdong Province China including its trade connections with Hong Kong and foreign investments in the area Designated as one of four Special Economic Zones SEZ as part of China's domestic economic reform in 1979 Weiping Wu examines Shenzhen's economic situation in the context of Hong Kong's transition just two years prior to publication in 1997 Wu explores the developments in Shenzhen in local policy labor costs export performance domestic linkages and complementarity with Hong Kong as a result of Hong Kong's closer connection with the Shenzhen trade area Shenzhen's suitability can then be assessed in its role as an SEZ to experiment with and digest western technology and management techniques for inland China and as a buffer between China and the wider world

China's Special Economic Zones Haishan Liu, 2005 The Political Economy of China's Economic Zones George T. Crane, 2019-07-04 In 1979 China launched a new international economic policy with the establishment of four Special Economic Zones SEZs Shenzhen Zhuhai and Shantou in Guangdong Province and Xiamen in Fujian Province Modelled loosely on export processing zones and free trade zones found in other less developed countries the SEZs offer a variety of financial inducements to foreign investors in order to harness international business for national economic advantage Designed to be a cornerstone of China's economic reforms by 1985 the SEZs in the mid 80s zone like policies were extended to fourteen coastal cities were scandal ridden and fraught with serious problems This work the first book length analysis in English of China's SEZs examines the problems and promise of this innovative approach to structural economic reform and the comparative significance of the SEZs

Special Economic Zones in India Arpita Mukherjee, Parthapratim Pal, Saubhik Deb, Subhobrota Ray, Tanu M Goyal, 2016-07-14 This book examines India's ten years of experience developing Special Economic Zones SEZs and the performance of SEZs in the context of India's growing international engagement its endeavours to attract domestic and foreign investment in manufacturing and services and its aim to increase and diversify exports of goods and services SEZs are industrial enclaves clusters within a country that receive certain incentives and business facilitation benefits that are not generally available to the rest of the country To facilitate private and foreign investment in SEZs India introduced the SEZ policy in 2000 which was followed by the SEZ Act in 2005 After ten years under the Act India now has one of the largest number of approved SEZs in the world and its SEZ policy remains heatedly debated with a number of studies arguing both for and against it Given this background the book also identifies the challenges faced by SEZs in India and offers policy recommendations on how to make the SEZs an engine for India's economic growth and development that can more effectively link the country's manufacturing and services sectors to global value chains

Industrial Policies In The Pacific Gunnar K. Sletmo, 2019-04-01 In GATT negotiations over the past several years the United States a founding member of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation Forum has been pushing hard for a global liberalization of trade in services This development would have special significance for the Pacific because of the intensifying competition between the United States and Japan for market shares A comprehensive analysis of the service sector's role in that dynamic region is offered in this timely volume Leading experts explore how service enterprises have affected trade in goods and transnational manufacturing forming a regional pattern of interdependence The authors assess each service sector from a regional perspective and offer detailed individual country studies as well The concluding chapters provide a broad overview of corporate strategies discuss questions of regional cooperation and identify opportunities for new regional service enterprises

Special Economic Zones in Asian Market Economies Connie Carter, Andrew Harding, 2010-09-13 Special Economic Zones SEZs have proliferated rapidly during the past decade and are set to multiply in the next embracing not only Asia and Europe but also Africa and the Americas This book is the first to examine the Asian experience of SEZs in China India Malaysia and the Philippines SEZs are usually clearly defined geographic areas in which national provincial or local governments use policy tools such as tax holidays improved infrastructure less onerous or differentiated regulations and incentives other than those generally available in the rest of the country to attract and promote private usually foreign investment from enterprises which commit to create employment and to export their products or services and generating foreign currency for the host country SEZs have been especially successful in bringing about economic development in Asia especially in China This book examines the origins nature and status of special economic zones in Asia together with the current trends connected with them and the challenges they currently face Although the World Trade Organisation cast doubts in 1995 on the future of special economic zones as a viable policy tool in the development agenda special economic zones continue to be used and favoured as a way of encouraging foreign investment and economic development with for example India trying to emulate China reincorporating special economic zones into its development policy This book provides regional case studies of SEZs in Asian market economies to analyse the extent to which these zones serve the changing needs of Asian development

China's Industrial Reform and Open-door Policy 1980-1997: A Case Study from Xiamen Qi Luo, 2017-09-08 This title was first published in 2001 The 1980s and 1990s were not only a period in which many developing countries adopted a series of major economic policy reforms but also an era in which all socialist countries undertook varying degrees of radical reforms in their Soviet style central planning economic management systems This volume examines the performance of China's industrial reform and open door policy during the period of 1980-1997 through conducting a case study on one of its Special Economic Zones SEZs Xiamen It adopts an analytical approach examining Xiamen's performance from the perspective of three important interactions between the country's general economic reform policies and the Special Policy implemented in the SEZs between the Xiamen SEZ and the vast Chinese hinterland and between foreign especially

Taiwanese direct investment and local industrial transformation China's Regional Development David S. G. Goodman, 2013-11-05 First published in 1989 This book considers two major aspects of China's economic reform: the open policy towards the West aimed at attracting technology and skills into the country and the emphasis on regionalization which established market orientated rather than bureaucratically controlled patterns of economic development Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter T. Muchlinski, 2007-07-12 Multinational Enterprises and the Law presents the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the various techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises (MNEs) at the national, regional and multilateral levels. In addition, it considers the effects of corporate self-regulation upon the development of the legal order in this area. Split into four parts, the book firstly deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation, explaining the growth of MNEs, their business and legal forms, the relationship between them and the effects of a globalising economy and society upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field. Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation, including the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities, controls and liberalization of entry and establishment, tax and company and competition law. Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation, covering labour rights, human rights and environmental issues, and Part IV deals with the contribution of international law and organizations to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks, covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements and their recent interpretation by international tribunals.
