China Born In 1980s Does Their Fortune Run Out:

China Guang Wu, 2014 In recent years a newly created word appeared in the Chinese language ba ling huo which refers to the people who were born in the 1980s In Chinese society this generation became a social problem because the older generations and mass media blamed them although they are the first generation under single child policy This book analyses this social problem and uses two measures to determine whether the 80s generation ran out of luck to define their relationship with China to discuss their future and what they can do in their future to determine reasons why the 80s generation suddenly find themselves out of favour in Chinese society and to explore the Chinese culture Chinese tradition and Chinese civilisation s role in the rise and fall of the 80s generation Critical Issues in Contemporary China Czeslaw Tubilewicz, 2024-09-11 The third edition of Critical Issues in Contemporary China offers an in depth and up to date analysis of Xi Jinping s strategies to address critical domestic and international challenges facing China in a new era This book joins the current debates about Xi Jinping s new era reflecting upon the continuity and change in the CCP s domestic and foreign policies under Xi s leadership and Xi s capacity to realize the Chinese Dream of national rejuvenation The international team of contributors evaluate such pressing issues as Xi s re centralization of power and securitization of domestic politics the Chinese economic model state civil society relations Xi s gender policy and return to the traditional family values Beijing s responses to unrest in Xinjiang and Hong Kong Xi s evolving unification strategies towards Taiwan the Belt and Road Initiative and the deterioration of US China relations Providing readers with rich empirical assessment of Xi s responses to the political economic social and international challenges facing contemporary China the third edition of Critical Issues will be an essential resource for students of Chinese politics economy society and foreign relations Meltdown: Money, Debt and the Wealth of Nations, Volume 5 William Krehm, 1999 The Time Inheritors Cora Lingling Xu, 2025-04-01 Reveals the role of time in reproducing inequalities as students navigate rural to urban cross border and transnational higher education Can a student inherit time What difference does time make to their educational journeys and outcomes The Time Inheritors draws on nearly a decade of field research with more than one hundred youth in China to argue that intergenerational transfers of privilege or deprivation are manifested in and through time Comparing experiences of rural to urban cross border and transnational education Cora Lingling Xu shows how inequalities in time inheritance help drive deeply unequal mobility With its unique focus on time nuanced comparative analysis and sensitive ethnographic engagement The Time Inheritors opens new avenues for understanding the social mechanisms shaping the future of China and the world

China's Youth Li Chunling, 2021-09-28 Understanding the young adults who came of age during the rise of China s economic and global power This book by a prominent Chinese sociologist explores how China s youth will influence the country s future Focusing on millennials those born between the early 1980s and the mid 1990s the book examines the status lifestyles attitudes values and behaviors of this key segment of the country s population Li Chunling s study presents a native

Chinese perspective on the increasingly diverse generation that at some point will assume leadership of the country Among the key questions addressed in the book are How do Chinese millennials differ both from preceding generations in China and from their counterparts around the world How can current and future relations between Chinese millennials and the Chinese government be assessed And what are the factors or fault lines that have shaped the intra generational differences among China s young people Members of this age cohort are extraordinary and in some respects unique in contemporary China Their ascent has accompanied five historic and far reaching developments These include China s rapid economic rise the adoption of the one child per family policy the largest domestic rural to urban migration in Chinese history the opening of extensive educational opportunities abroad and the arrival of the digital era Young Chinese citizens have developed a comprehensive understanding of the world much faster than previous generations millennials see themselves not as extensions of the past but rather as the innovators of the country s future Through expansive and in depth empirical research on Chinese millennials and younger age cohorts people in their late teens and early 20s Dr Li s book illustrates how China s younger adults reflect the growing diversity and persistent inequality in society The book also explores how their distinct characteristics and views will shape the country s trajectory For the outside world developing a better understanding of this unique generation is an urgent task given that China now has more influence on the global economy and regional security than at any other point in modern history

Fixing Inequality in Hong Kong Yue Chim Richard Wong,2017-02-01 When discussing inequality and poverty in Hong Kong scholars and politicians often focus on the failures of government policy and push for an increase in social welfare Richard Wong argues in Fixing Inequality in Hong Kong that universal retirement support minimum wage and standard hours of work are of limited effect in shrinking the inequality gap By comparing Hong Kong with Singapore he points out that Hong Kong needs a new and long term strategy on human resource policy He recommends more investment in education focusing on early education and immigration policy reforms to attract highly educated and skilled people to join the workforce In analyzing what causes inequality this book ties disparate issues together into a coherent framework such as Hong Kong's aging population lack of investment in human capital and family breakdowns Rising divorce rates among low income households have worsened the housing shortage driving rents and property prices upwards Housing problems have created a bigger gap between those who own housing and have the ability to invest in their children's human capital and those who cannot thus adversely impacting intergenerational upward mobility This is the third of Richard Wong's collections of articles on society and economy in Hong Kong Diversity and Occasional Anarchy and Hong Kong Land for Hong Kong People published by Hong Kong University Press in 2013 and 2015 respectively discuss growing economic and social contradictions in Hong Kong and current housing problems and their solutions

China's landless peasants and the role of state-led rural urbanization

Isabel Heger-Laube, 2025-07-02 As part and parcel of China's compressed modernization processes of state led rural urbanization through land expropriation and rural to urban relocation have been transforming rural Chinese people's lives in unprecedented ways This has led to different often adverse outcomes for the affected populations China's landless peasants as well as to the construction of divergent narratives about the role of the state's measures for them To provide a so far missing perspective to existing research Isabel Heger Laube reconstructs the role of the experienced changes from landless peasants own narratives drawing on the big and small stories collected through fieldwork in Huaming model town in Tianjin's Dongli district By focusing on ordinary people's subjective processes of meaning making the present study not only puts into perspective objective assessments and persistent narrative tendencies but also sheds new light on the puzzle of social stability in the wake of large scale state led transformations in contemporary China

World Design Science Decade: Phase 1 Document 3 R. Buckminster Fuller, The documents in this series originated with a proposal made by R Buckminster Fuller to the International Union of Architects I U A at their VIIth Congress in London England in July 1961 launching the World Design Science Decade He proposed then that the architectural schools around the world be encouraged by the I U A to invest the next ten years in a continuing problem of how to make the total world's resources which in 1961 serve only 40% serve 100% of humanity through competent design despite a continuing decrease of metal resources per capita In essence The World Design Science Decade series of documents suggests in great detail ways in which world architectural schools and specifically their students should initiate and assume The Design Science Decade The total series includes many of Fuller's most prescient ideas A note from the series editor John McHale Though the language of some of the texts may seem difficult at first approach it should be borne in mind that one of our major problems in thinking today 1965 is the use of language systems which still represent a fixed structurally compartmentalized world view The terms available to us for the expression of dynamic rather than static concepts are far from satisfactory Fuller's language is particularly representative of the transitional state of the western world between the older traditional noun centered culture to its present day changing verb centered culture In his search for an adequately descriptive terminology he tends to employ concepts and usages from many different fields juxtaposed in ways which may be unfamiliar to those more customarily restrained within the vocabularies of particular disciplines Description by the Buckminster Fuller Institute courtesy of The Estate of R Buckminster Fuller
