Citizenship And Migration Globalization And The Politics Of Belonging:

Citizenship and Migration Stephen Castles, Alastair Davidson, 2020-06-30 This book argues that basing citizenship on singular and individual membership in a nation state is no longer adequate since the nation state model itself is being severely eroded It examines issues of citizenship and difference in the Asia Pacific region

Theology and the Religions Viggo Mortensen, 2003 The academic study of religion is undergoing great changes in response to globalization Just as sociologists now find it necessary to think in terms of multiculturalism so religion scholars and theologians today must work in the context of multireligiosity Globalization is leading not only to multiethnic societies but also to plurality in religions and worldviews Theology and the Religions A Dialogue offers the first sustained analysis of the trend toward multireligiosity and its implications for the study of religion Drawing on the resources of cultural analysis religious studies and theology an international slate of scholars explores the relation of multiculturalism and multireligiosity the need for interreligious dialogue and the possibilities for a theology of religions This groundbreaking work is supported by case studies of various religious traditions in diverse cultures from around the world Special attention is paid to Christian theological reflection however since as a global religion Christianity is particularly challenged by multireligiosity Offering an engaging wide angle view of religion worldwide Theology and the Religions makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the forces shaping the future of religious and social life Contributors Kajsa Ahlstrand Theodor Ahrens Jan Martin Berentsen Ulrich Dehn Helene Egnell Marianne C Qvortrup Fibiger Patrik Friedlund Virginia Garrard Burnett Geomon K George Elisabeth Gerle Friedrich Wilhelm Graf Hans Hauge Ulf Hedetoft S Mark Heim Chris Hewer Klaus Hock Michael Ipgrave Andrew J Kirk Lene K hle Volker K ster Aasulv Lande Oddbjorn Leirvik Ole Skjerk Madsen Hiromasa Mase Mogens S Mogensen Viggo Mortensen Johannes Nissen Klaus N rnberger Caleb Oladipo Tinu Ruparell Risto Saarinen Lamin Sanneh Olaf Schumann Notto R Thelle Joachim Track V tor Westhelle H S Wilson

Handbook of Citizenship and Migration Marco Giugni, Maria Grasso, 2021-06-25 Taking an integrated approach this unique Handbook places the terms citizenship and migration on an equal footing examining how they are related to each other both conceptually and empirically

The Politics of Citizenship in Indonesia Eric Hiarij, Kristian Stokke, 2022-02-10 This book highlights the gains that a citizenship approach offers to the study of democracy in Indonesia demonstrating that the struggle for citizenship and the historical development of democracy in the country are closely interwoven The book arises from a research agenda aiming to help Indonesia s democracy activists by unpacking citizenship as it is produced and practiced through movements against injustice taking the shape of struggles by people at grassroots levels for cultural recognition social and economic injustice and popular representation Such struggles in Indonesia have engaged with the state through both discursive and non discursive processes The authors show that while the state is the common focal point these struggles are fragmented across different sectors and subject positions The authors thus propose that developing chains of solidarity is highly important to motivating a democracy that not only has sovereign control over public affairs but also robust channels and organisations for political representation In advocating the development of transformative agendas organisations and strategies as an important need and an enduring challenge for the realization of citizenship this book is timely and relevant to the study of contemporary Indonesia s socio political landscape It is relevant to students and scholars in political science anthropology sociology human geography and development studies

Reconfigurations of Authority, Power and Territoriality Rosow, Stephen J.,Andreopoulos, George,2022-07-19

Expansive and engaging this book investigates the fluidity of sites of power and authority in global politics Examining the key shifts and turns of politics in globally oriented spaces since the end of the Cold War contributions from leading scholars explore the continually shifting parameters of global governance Citizens Without Frontiers Engin F. Isin,2012-11-02

States define who their citizens are and exert control over their life and movements But how does such power persist in a global world where people ideas and products constantly cross the borders of what the states see as their sovereign territory This groundbreaking work sets to examine and interprets such challenges to offer a new way of thinking about citizenship Abandoning the sovereignty principle it develops a new image of citizenship using the connectedness principle To do so it interprets acts of citizenship by following activist citizens across the world through case studies from Wikileaks and the Gaza flotilla to China s virtual world and Darfur Written by a leader in the field this accessible and original work imagines citizens without frontiers as a politics without community and belonging inclusion without exclusion where the frontier becomes a form of otherness that citizens erase or create This unique work brings forth a new and creative way to approach citizenship beyond boundaries that will appeal to anyone studying citizenship social movements and migration Majority-Minority

Relations in Contemporary Women's Movements L. Predelli,B. Halsaa,2012-06-29 This book examines contemporary relations between ethnic majority and ethnic minority women s movements in Norway Spain and the United Kingdom and women s movements participation in and influence on public policy that focuses on violence against women The European Mosaic

David Gowland,2014-01-14 The European Mosaic is an up to date introduction to all aspects of the politics economics culture and recent history of the European Union in particular and Europe in general The European Mosaic effectively familiarizes students with EU issues that are currently in the news and likely to remain so for the foreseeable future It is a clear and accessible introduction to the European polity Its strongly interdisciplinary focus provides a multidimensional understanding of contemporary Europe of the process of European integration and of the dynamics of the European Union Suitable for undergraduate courses in European politics Football in the Middle East Abdullah Al-Arian,2022-08-10 Far and away the most popular sport in the world football has a special place in Middle Eastern societies and for Middle Eastern states With

Qatar hosting the 2022 FIFA World Cup this region has been cast into the global footballing spotlight raising issues of geopolitical competition consumer culture and social justice Taking an interdisciplinary approach this book examines the complex questions raised by the phenomenon of football as a significant cultural force in the Middle East as well as its linkages to broader political and socioeconomic processes The establishment of football as a national sport offers significant insight into the region's historical experiences with colonialism and struggles for independence as well as the sport's vital role in local and regional politics today whether at the forefront of popular mobilisations or as an instrument of authoritarian control Football has also served as an arena of contestation in the formation of national identity the struggle for gender equality and the development of the media landscape The twelve contributions to this volume draw on extensive engagement with the existing body of literature and introduce original research questions that promise to open new directions for the study of football in the Middle East
