

Congress of the United States began and held at the City of New York, on Wednesday the fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine

THE Convention of members of the States having at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire in order to give more effect to its powers, that further declaration and addition should be added; and as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government will best ensure the longest and best continuance of the same, they have agreed upon and approved the following Resolutions, which shall be reported to the House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, for their consideration and approval.

RESOLVED

by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following Articles be proposed to the States, as amendments to the Constitution of the United States, all of which shall be valid as to the States which shall ratify the same, as soon as they shall be ratified by three fourths of the whole Number of States, which said Articles shall be reported to the House of Representatives of the United States of America, prepared by Congress, in the fifth Article of the original Constitution, viz^t in addition to, and amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, prepared by Congress, in the fifth Article of the original Constitution, viz^t

That the House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

But no Representative shall be chosen for a longer Term than two Years, nor shall he be re-elected more than once.
