Coming Soon Keith M. Johnston, 2009-06-17 The audience's first exposure to a new movie is often in the form of a coming attraction trailer and short previews are also a vanguard for emerging technology and visual techniques This book demonstrates how the trailer has educated audiences in new film technologies such as synchronized sound widescreen and 3 D tracing the trailer's status as a trailblazer on to new media screens and outlets such as television the Internet and the iPod The impact and use of new technologies and the evolution of trailers beyond the big screen is followed into the digital era

Coming Soon Keith M. Johnston, 2009-09-12 The audience's first exposure to a new movie is often in the form of a coming attraction trailer and short previews are also a vanguard for emerging technology and visual techniques This book demonstrates how the trailer has educated audiences in new film technologies such as synchronized sound widescreen and 3 D tracing the trailer's status as a trailblazer on to new media screens and outlets such as television the Internet and the iPod The impact and use of new technologies and the evolution of trailers beyond the big screen is followed into the digital era

Science Fiction Film Keith M. Johnston, 2013-05-09 Science Fiction Film develops a historical and cultural approach to the genre that moves beyond close readings of iconography and formal conventions It explores how this increasingly influential genre has been constructed from disparate elements into a hybrid genre Science Fiction Film goes beyond a textual exploration of these films to place them within a larger network of influences that includes studio politics and promotional discourses The book also challenges the perceived limits of the genre it includes a wide range of films from canonical SF such as Le voyage dans la lune Star Wars and Blade Runner to films that stretch and reshape the definition of the genre This expansion of generic focus offers an innovative approach for students and fans of science fiction alike Film

Marketing into the Twenty-First Century Nolwenn Mingant, Cecilia Tirtaine, Joël Augros, 2019-07-25 How do you sell British humour to a French audience Could piracy actually be good for the film business Why are The Hobbit's revolutionary technologies not mentioned in some adverts Exploring these questions and many more Film Marketing into the Twenty First Century draws on insights from renowned film academics and leading industry professionals to chart the evolution of modern film marketing The first part of the book focuses on geographical considerations showing how marketers have to adapt their strategies locally as films travel across borders The second covers new marketing possibilities offered by the Internet as Vine Facebook and other participative websites open new venues for big distributors and independents alike Straddling practical and theoretical concerns and including case studies that take us from Nollywood to Peru this book provides an accessible introduction to the key issues at stake for film marketing in a global era Telecinematic Stylistics Christian

Hoffmann, Monika Kirner-Ludwig, 2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmatylistic showcase It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en scene or montage The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context In this way it provides systematic insights into how meanings are displayed enhanced suppressed and negotiated in both film and televisual arts Performing

Shakespearean Appropriations Darlena Ciraulo,Matthew Kozusko,Robert Sawyer,2022-06-29 Performing Shakespearean Appropriations explores the production and consumption of Shakespeare in acts of adaptation and appropriation across time periods and through a range of performance topics The ten essays moving from the seventeenth to the twenty first century address uses of Shakespeare in the novel television cinema and digital media Drawing on Christy Desmet s work several contributors figure appropriation as a posthumanist enterprise that engages with electronic Shakespeare by dismantling reassembling and recreating Shakespearean texts in and for digital platforms The collection thus looks at media and performance technologies diachronically in its focus on Shakespeare s afterlives Contributors also construe the notion of performance broadly to include performances of selves of communities of agencies and of authenticity either Shakespeare s or the user s or both The essays examine both specific performances and larger trends across media and they consider a full range of modes from formal and professional to casual and amateur from the fixed and traditional to the ephemeral the itinerant and the irreverent The ^AOxford Handbook of Music and Advertising James Deaville,Siu-Lan Tan,Ron

Rodman,2021-02-01 This Handbook explains how music contributes to the advertising that the public encounters on a daily basis Chapters examine how the soundtracks of promotional messages originate how we might interpret the meanings behind the music and how commercial messages influence us through music Profit Margins Jeremy Groskopf,2021-12-07 Between the advent of print advertising and the dawn of radio came cinema ads These ads aimed at a captive theater audience became a symbol of the developing binary between upper class film consumption and more consumerist media In Profit Margins Jeremy Groskopf examines how the ad industry jockeyed for direct advertisement space in American motion pictures In fact advertisers who recognized the import of film audiences fought exhibitors over what audiences expected in a theater outing Looking back at these debates in four case studies Groskopf reveals that advertising became a marker of class distinctions in the cinema experience as the film industry pushed out advertisers in order to create a space free of ads By restricting advertising especially during the rise of high class palatial theaters the film industry continued its ongoing effort to ascend the cultural hierarchy of the arts An important read for film studies and the history of marketing Profit Margins exposes the fascinating truth surrounding the invention of cinema advertising techniques and the resulting rhetoric of class division

Films that Sell Patrick Vonderau, Bo Florin, Nico De Klerk, 2019-07-25 While moving image advertising has been around us everywhere for at least a century the topic has tended to be overlooked by cinema studies This far reaching new collection makes an incisive contribution to a new field of study by exploring the history theory and practice of moving image advertising and emphasising the dynamic and lasting relationships between print film broadcasting and advertising cultures In chapters written by an international ensemble of leading scholars and archivists the book covers a variety of materials from pre show advertising films to lantern slides and sponsored educations With case studies of advertising campaigns and archival collections from a range of different countries and giving consideration to the problems that advertising materials pose for preservation and presentation this rich and expansive text testifies to the need for a new approach to this burgeoning subject that looks beyond the mere study of promotional film
