

The Hall Mary

PLANNING:

Background reading: CCC 2657-2679, Luke 1:26-36

Supplies: construction paper, paper, pens, pencil crayons/markers

OBSERVE:

The Visitation, Tossat. The focus of the image are the two women, but what can we see about Zechariah? He holds the door (what is problematic)? He honors the women. He is old and cannot speak--so he listens! Do we listen to hear the Holy Spirit?

READ:

Read the chapter. Bold print is for young children (3rd-grade 3); bold and regular print is designed for readers (grades 3-5); italics for older students (grades 6-8). You may also read the Annunciation and Visitation from the Bible (Luke 1:26-45).

CROSS CURRICULAR:

It is easy to become casual in speech with those we are familiar. We may use "uhm" when speaking to our parents, e.g., "yesh" or we might mutter instead of speaking directly to them. It is important to have open, honest communication with parents. Practice verbally expressing needs and feelings.

MEMORY:

Memorize the Hall Mary. Be sure the students know the Hall Mary and understand the words and meaning of this prayer.

Older students should memorize the Marian Dogmas: Immaculate Conception, Perpetual Virginity, Divine Motherhood, Assumption.

THINK:

GOOD'S PLANS

At the time of the Annunciation, Mary was likely about 14 years old by today's standard. She was a child! Yet, she was fast-tracked to be married and was capable of raising an infant (for God would not have asked her to do so); it would have been scary, though, to have a child before she was married. In fact, she could have been stoned to death.

God has a special plan for each of us. For most of us, it will not be so clear. We must discern God's call in our lives. We must pray and allow God to direct our paths.

When God calls us or asks us to do something, He will not ask beyond our ability. God, Who is all-good and all-loving, has a wonderful plan even if it does not seem to be what you want at the time. Sometimes, God's plan seems hard. But, like Mary, can you say "Yes"? Learn to say Yes in small things, so that saying Yes to big things is much easier. It becomes a habit, and easy.

HYMN:

Immaculate Mary

VIRTUE:

Christian Love, to love God above all things--for Himself, and to love neighbor for love of God
