Handbook of Catholic Social Teaching Martin Schlag, 2017 Handbook of Catholic Social Teaching employs a question and answer format to better accentuate the response of the Church's message to the questions Catholics have about their social role and what the Church intends to teach about it Written in consultation with the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace the Handbook should take its place alongside the Catechism of the Social Doctrine of the Church on the shelf of informed Catholics as works that can inform what we believe and do in the public sphere A Guide to the Period of the Catechumenate Angela Darrow Flynn, Joe Paprocki, Stephen S. Wilbricht, csc, 2024-09-01 The period of the catechumenate is rich with opportunities for catechesis and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults presents four ways that catechesis occurs during that time for the unbaptized A Guide to the Period of the Catechumenate breaks open each of those ways of catechizing by first exploring the approach of catechesis accommodated to the liturgical year then by providing suggestions on how to introduce catechumens to the Christian way of life In addition to this foundational material this book also includes An overview of six foundational principles of initiation ministry and how they are applied to the period of the catechumenate Practical advice for leading formational and catechetical sessions with the unbaptized Thirty five seasonal outlines and twenty four monthly outlines with liturgical suggestions for preparing Celebrations of the Word Thirty four seasonal outlines and twenty four monthly outlines with practical ways catechumens can serve their parish and local communities Twelve catechetical sessions on the lives of the saints Primary Source Readings in Catholic Social Justice Jerry Windley-Daoust, 2007 God calls each one of us to work for justice in the world It is a daunting task that we do not face alone Primary Source Readings in Catholic Social Justice presents the living words of the Catholic Church Each chapter contains an excerpt from relevant Church documents the writings of a person striving to live the Catholic social justice mission and a sidebar highlighting the actions of a person or organization working to make the world a better place This is the perfect resource to supplement any social justice class Social Justice Education Kathleen Skubikowski, Catharine Wright, Roman Graf, 2023-07-14 This book addresses the combination of pedagogical curricular and institutional commitments necessary to create and sustain diversity on campus Its premise is that the socially just classroom flourishes in the context of a socially just institution and it invites faculty and administrators to create such classrooms and institutions This book grew out of a project involving deans and directors of teaching centers and diversity offices from six institutions to instigate discussions among teachers and administrators about implementing socially just practices in their classrooms departments and offices The purpose was to explore how best to foster such conversations across departments and functions within an institution as well as between institutions This book presents the theoretical framework used and many of the successful projects to which it gave rise Recognizing that many faculty have little preparation for teaching students whose backgrounds culture and educational socialization differ from theirs the opening foundational section asks teachers to attend closely to their and their students relative power and positionality in the classroom and to the impact of the materials resources and pedagogical approaches employed Further chapters offer analytical tools to promote inquiry and change The concluding sections of the book demonstrate how intra and inter institutional collaborations inspired teachers to rise to the challenge of their campuses commitments to diversity Among the examples presented is an initiative involving the faculty development coordinator and faculty from a wide range of domains at DePauw University who built upon an existing ethics initiative to embed social justice across the curriculum In another professors of mathematics from three institutions describe how they collaborated to create socially just classrooms that both serve mathematical learning and support service learning or community based learning activities The final essay by a student from the Maldives describing how she navigated the chasm between life in an American college and her family circumstances will reinforce the reader's commitment to establishing social justice in the academy. This book provides individual faculty, faculty developers, and diversity officers with the concepts, reflective tools, and collaborative models as well as a wealth of examples to confidently embark on the path to transforming educational practice.

Connecting Jesus to Social Justice Thomas Hughson, 2013-10-10. Many Christians see the societal dimension of their faith as a matter of biblical and social ethics. Returning to classical Christology, Connecting Jesus to Social Justice explores messianic potential in the Council of Chalcedon on the divine identity of Christ. Who Jesus is makes all the difference to Christian entrance into the public sphere on behalf of a just society. The Messiah's divinity bears on social mission directed toward a just social order. Theological appropriation of Chalcedon overcomes a gap between the professing the Creed and interpreting social existence in light of a just social order. Connecting Jesus to Social Justice argues a doctrinally traditional, orthodox basis for Christian participation in the public sphere on behalf of social justice. The book addresses a situation internal to churches in the U.S. from a Catholic perspective yet not without analogies in other churches and Christian movements. Applying traditional Christology to contemporary social mission solidifies an answer to adversarial queries on the appropriateness of a social agenda. Implications in the classical Christology also confirm churches and discipleship in commitment to social justice promoted through a subaltern counter-public and then by word and deed in the public sphere.
