The SAGE Encyclopedia of Contemporary Early Childhood Education Donna Couchenour, J. Kent Chrisman, 2016-08-16 The general public often views early childhood education as either simply babysitting or as preparation for later learning Of course both viewpoints are simplistic Deep understanding of child development best educational practices based on development emergent curriculum cultural competence and applications of family systems are necessary for high quality early education Highly effective early childhood education is rare in that it requires collaboration and transitions among a variety of systems for children from birth through eight years of age The SAGE Encyclopedia of Contemporary Early Childhood Education presents in three comprehensive volumes advanced research accurate practical applications of research historical foundations and key facts from the field of contemporary early childhood education Through approximately 425 entries this work includes all areas of child development physical cognitive language social emotional aesthetic as well as comprehensive review of best educational practices with young children effective preparation for early childhood professionals and policy making practices and addresses such questions as How is the field of early childhood education defined What are the roots of this field of study How is the history of early childhood education similar to yet different from the study of public education What are the major influences on understandings of best practices in early childhood education

Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum in Action Marjorie J. Kostelnik, Anne Soderman, Michelle Rupiper, Alice Whiren, 2013-04-29 Written for courses in Curriculum in Early Childhood Education and Methods for Teaching Young Children in Preschool and Kindergarten A comprehensive overview of all the components necessary to run an effective early childhood program as a teacher this concise new text is keenly focused on application and skill building utilizing several areas of child development aesthetic affective cognitive language physical and social as the basis for curriculum planning Neither a subject based nor a materials based curriculum this directly applicable text instead promotes several areas of child development and incorporates subject matter areas art

math literacy and science into the developmental domains rather than focusing on the subjects themselves The authors present six activity types exploratory play guided discovery problem solving discussions demonstrations and direct instruction in every domain Furthermore they provide long form lesson plans and short form plans that illustrate these activity types in all of the curriculum chapters Closely aligned to the current developmentally appropriate practice DAP guidelines the text effectively prepares pre service teachers for the Praxis II exam if it is required in their state Promoting the teacher as an active participant in education is another important characteristic of the text with a detailed discussion of the importance of being intentional in one s teaching and what this looks like in a true classroom environment The authors support this ideology by explaining and showing how a teacher becomes more active one ready to make continual judgments about what to plan how to build on children s interests and knowledge and how to interact with children to scaffold their learning Strongly methods based in its approach the text also imparts the how to of teaching with a plethora of examples as to what is appropriate to teach children ages three to six years of age
