Creation And Redemption Theology And Life Series 25:

Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible Zoltan Dornyei, 2018-03-22 Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God's creation include imperfection let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God's creative work In seeking a response to these questions this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity's struggles centered on three key themes corporeal temptation deficient social structures and the much debated notion of spiritual warfare The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics from Job's temptation to the Atonement The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God's creative purpose and discusses three assignments from Jesus to believers to celebrate the Eucharist to pray the Lord's Prayer and to fulfill the Great Commission Christian Theology Christopher W.

Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2020-05-01 In Christian Theology author Christopher W Morgan presents an accessible introduction to the core areas of systematic theology including God revelation humanity sin Christ and his work the church and the future Each chapter highlights Scripture's teaching on a topic as it unfolds in the Bible's story line intentionally connecting readers to the doctrines with a focus on personal application and missional living The Emergence of Christian Theology Eric Francis Osborn, 1993-04 There are special times of movement in the history of ideas and one such time as the author of this study shows was the second half of the second century when Christian thought showed fresh vigour By concentrating on five seminal Christian thinkers of the second century Justin Athenegoras Irenaeus Clement of Alexandria and Tertullian Eric Osborn illustrates how it was that Christianity made monotheism axiomatic to its central doctrinal claims while adapting too to the peculiar circumstances in which it developed The stimulus for new thought came from the objections of the state philosophers Jews Gnostics and Marcion who in different ways denied the Christian claim to faith in one God In response Christian thinkers argued for one God who was the first principle of being goodness and truth In its presentation of the lively beginning which brought Christianity and classical thought together this book casts light on the growth of the European intellectual tradition Spirit and Scripture Kevin L. Spawn, Archie T. Wright, 2011-11-10 This book considers the academic treatment of biblical interpretation in the renewal movement the fastest growing tradition in Christendom today The initial chapter surveys the history of biblical interpretation in the renewal tradition and provides a conceptual basis for the book In Part II six renewal scholars outline a proposal for the future of biblical hermeneutics in the tradition These authors address certain key questions What is the role of the Holy Spirit in biblical interpretation What are the distinctive presuppositions methods and goals of renewal biblical hermeneutics Three prominent biblical scholars Craig G Bartholomew James D G Dunn R Walter L Moberly respond to the proposals outlined above These critical responses deepen the examination of renewal biblical hermeneutics as well as increase its appeal to biblical and theological scholars in general The final chapter offers a synthesis and evaluation of the accomplishments of the discussion as well as an assessment of the state of the discipline with an eye toward the future

A Liberating Spirit Michael Wilkinson, Steven M. Studebaker, 2010-09-13 The historical ambivalence among Pentecostals about their relationship to culture and society needs evaluation How do we understand Pentecostal engagement with society and how are Pentecostals in North America engaging issues of race class gender and ecology What theologically motivates North American Pentecostals to respond to social issues What categories best explain Pentecostal responses to social issues in North America How do they compare to Pentecostal responses elsewhere Recently scholars of global Pentecostalism have proposed that the experience of the Spirit among Pentecostals has elicited the development of a Pentecostal theology of liberation which has implications for understanding Pentecostal responses to social issues These projects primarily explore the Pentecostal response to cultural issues in areas outside of North America and especially focus on Africa Asia and Latin America This volume assesses whether the categories of social liberation applied to non Western Pentecostalism characterize Pentecostalism in North America Is there evidence of a Pentecostal theology of liberation that explains Pentecostal engagement in North America Do social liberation categories fit the North American Pentecostal responses to social issues or are others more suitable These and other important questions about the relation between liberation theology and North American Pentecostalism are thoroughly explored in this important collection of essays

Saving the Original Sinner Karl W. Giberson, 2015-06-09 A scientist and former evangelical argues that holding onto a belief in a literal historical Adam has forced many Christians to reject science and become intellectually isolated from the modern world The Bible s first man stands at the center of a crisis that is shaking much of Christianity In the evangelical world scholars have been ostracized and banished from their academic communities for endorsing a modern scientific understanding of the world even as they remained strong Christians Self appointed gatekeepers of traditional theology demand intellectual allegiance to an implausible interpretation of the Genesis creation story insisting that all humanity must be descended from a single perfect human pair Adam and Eve Such a view is utterly at odds with contemporary science It wasn t always this way Karl Giberson spotlights the venerable tradition of Christian engagement with new knowledge and discoveries When global exploration anthropology geology paleontology biblical studies and even linguistics cast doubt on the historicity of Adam and his literal fall into sin Christians responded by creatively reimagining the creation story letting Adam evolve to accommodate his changing context Even conservative evangelical institutions until recently encouraged serious engagement with evolutionary science unhindered by the straitjacket of young earth creationism intelligent design or other views demanding that Adam be a historical figure Giberson calls for a renewed conversation between science and Christianity and for more open engagement with new scientific discoveries even when they threaten central doctrines Christians should not be made to choose between their faith and their understanding of the universe Instead as Giberson argues they should follow in the once robust tradition of exploring science openly within the broad contours of Christian belief The Christian Workers Magazine ,1918 The United States Catalog ,1903 Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard,2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton reception that assumes his early classic works The One the Three and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought Instead this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation creation Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community
