After Dark Wilkie Collins, 1893 Desire After Dark Andrew J. Owens, 2021-03-02 Since the 1960s the occult in film and television has responded to and reflected society's crises surrounding gender and sexuality In Desire After Dark Andrew J Owens explores media where figures such as vampires and witches make use of their supernatural knowledge in order to queer what otherwise appears to be a normative world Beginning with the global sexual revolutions of the 60s and moving decade by decade through Euro sleaze cinema and theatrical hardcore pornography the HIV AIDS crisis the popularity of New Age religions and witchcraft and finally the increasingly explicit sexualization of American cable television Owens contends that occult media has risen to prominence during the past 60 years as a way of exposing and working through cultural crises about queerness Through the use of historiography and textual analyses of media from Bewitched to The Hunger Owens reveals that the various players in occult media have always been well aware that non normative sexuality constitutes the heart of horror's enduring appeal By investigating vampirism witchcraft and other manifestations of the supernatural in media Desire After Dark confirms how the queer has been integral to the evolution of the horror genre and its persistent popularity as both a subcultural and mainstream media form The Confessions Carmas

Heise,2021-09-01 Confessions explores a woman s pursuit of the truth about her broken and dysfunctional family Very early in her childhood Debbie had discovered that her life was being controlled by some old and very dark secrets Then one day her father calls and summons her to come back to Missouri to discuss some family business She arrives to find he is in a hospice dying and he wants to make a deathbed confession Upon hearing her father s story Debbie believes her father s actions were justifiable Then she learns he confessed it once before to her mother forty years ago What was in that confession that destroyed her mother Every time her father visited Debbie her mother would go into hysterics sometimes for weeks Her mother and father had kept secret the story of their romance and his confession from Debbie for decades Now she had her father s story Would her mother be able to tell her side of the story Confessions as a novel addresses the relationship between a sin a confession and forgiveness Which is worse the original sin if kept a secret or the confession of the sin to the recipient We are taught to confess to seek forgiveness from the person we have sinned against But is that always the right choice What if the confession does not generate the forgiveness we desire What if the confession destroys that person ruins their life and the lives of others What if the confession was given for that purpose not seeking forgiveness but seeking revenge Confessions have consequences that can t always be controlled
