Dementia Beyond Drugs:

Dementia Beyond Drugs G. Allen Power, Kate Swaffer, William H. Thomas, 2016-09 Reducing the use of psychotropic drugs in the symptomatic treatment of dementia is key to successfully implementing compassionate person centered practices in your organization and this book shows clearly why and how it can be done The revised second edition of this award winning resource introduces new research language and examples to reinforce the core message that antipsychotic medications are not the solution to ease the distress experienced by individuals living with dementia Outlined here is the information and inspiration you need to provide alternative solutions for individualized support and care Cover A New Role for Museum Educators Elizabeth Wood, 2023-06-26 A New Role for Museum Educators shows how learning happens in communities how volunteers and professionals approach their work the underlying principles and philosophies that guide the work of museum education and how these practices are always evolving to remain relevant Museum education in its most expansive definition is about communicating messages creating learning experiences and at its most aspirational promoting human development for people of all backgrounds abilities and circumstances This edited volume revisits the legacy of museum education practices reflecting on the changing context of community and the role of cultural institutions and provides insights into new directions that museums can take with a visitor centered mindset It provides foundational concepts around educational philosophies that guide practice applied methods and approaches for implementation and the ethos of an educational institution intended to support community learning and engagement that are essential to provide for the wide ranging needs of all audiences International perspectives from a variety of museums are considered including art museums children s museums history museums and historic sites science museums botanical gardens zoos and aquariums Chapters include thought provoking reflections on contemporary practices concrete examples from across the globe and useful tools for anyone working with public audiences Grounded in practice and informed by research this volume will be a go to resource for arts and cultural organization practitioners particularly those working in Museum Education It will also be essential reading for students of Museum Studies Education and related fields The Long Hello Cathie Borrie, 2016-04-19 A powerful ground shifting account of caring for a parent with Alzheimer s about which Maya Angelou exclaimed Joy Since Cathie Borrie delivered her keynote performance at the World Alzheimer s Day event sponsored by the Community and Access Programs of the Museum of Modern Art her self published manuscript has won rapturous praise from noted writers and Alzheimer s experts alike from Maya Angelou Lisa Genova and Molly Peacock to Dr Bill Thomas Jed A Levine of the Alzheimer s Association NYC and Meryl Comer of the Geoffrey Beene Foundation Alzheimer s Initiative Now it is available to the general public for the first time in a trade edition The Long Hello distills the seven years the author spent caring for her mother into a page turning memoir that offers insight into the altering world of the dementia mind During that time Borrie recorded brief conversations she had with her mother that revealed the transformations within and sometimes yielded an almost Zenlike poetry She includes selections from them in chapters about her experience that are as evocative as diary entries Her mother was the emotional pillar and sometime breadwinner in a home touched by a birth father s alcoholism a brother s early death divorce and a stepfather s remoteness In Borrie s spare prose her mother s story becomes a family s story as well a deeply loving portrait that embraces life

Happily Ever Older Moira Welsh,2021-02-09 While Being Mortal Atul Gawande helped us understand disease and death and Successful Aging Daniel J Levitin showed us older years can be a time of joy and resilience Happily Ever Older reveals how the right living arrangements can create a vibrancy that defies age or ability Reporter Moira Welsh has spent years investigating retirement homes and long term care facilities and wants to tell the dangerous stories Not the accounts of falls or bedsores or overmedication but of seniors living with purpose and energy and love Stories that could change the status quo Welsh takes readers across North America and into Europe on a whirlwind tour of facilities with novel approaches to community living including a day program in a fake town out of the 1950s a residence where seniors school their student roommates in beer pong and an aging in place community in a forest where everyone seems to have a pet or a garden or both The COVID 19 pandemic cruelly showed us that social isolation is debilitating and Welsh tells stories of elders living with friendship new and old in their later years Happily Ever Older is a warm inspiring blueprint for change proof that instead of warehousing seniors we can create a future with strong social connections and a reason to go on living
