Chinese Circulations Capital Commodities And Networks In Southeast Asia:

Chinese Circulations Eric Tagliacozzo, Wen-chin Chang, 2011-04-13 This collection of twenty essays provides an unprecedented overview of Chinese trade through the centuries highlighting its scope diversity complexity and the commodities that have linked it with Southeast Asia Conflict and Commerce in Maritime East Asia Xing Hang, 2016-01-05 The Zheng family of merchants and militarists emerged from the tumultuous seventeenth century amid a severe economic depression a harrowing dynastic transition from the ethnic Chinese Ming to the Manchu Qing and the first wave of European expansion into East Asia Under four generations of leaders over six decades the Zheng had come to dominate trade across the China Seas Their average annual earnings matched and at times exceeded those of their fiercest rivals the Dutch East India Company Although nominally loyal to the Ming in its doomed struggle against the Manchus the Zheng eventually forged an autonomous territorial state based on Taiwan with the potential to encompass the family's entire economic sphere of influence Through the story of the Zheng Xing Hang provides a fresh perspective on the economic divergence of early modern China from western Europe its twenty first century resurgence and the meaning of a Chinese identity outside China

Rising China and New Chinese Migrants in Southeast Asia Leo Suryadinata, Benjamin Loh, 2022-11-28 New Chinese migration is a recent development that has just entered an initial phase An overarching theme and conclusion across the sixteen chapters in this volume is that China's policy towards Chinese migrants has changed from period to period and it is still too early for us to determine if Beijing will continue to pursue the policy of luoye guigen return to original roots or will revert to one of luodi shenggen sink into local roots The various chapters also show that the profile motivations and outlooks of xin yimin new Chinese migrants have become more diverse while local reactions to these new migrants have become less accommodating with increasing nationalism Trade and Empire in Early Nineteenth-century Southeast Asia G. R. Knight, 2015 Discusses the complexities of a trading network in this period outlining commodity chains links between colonies and colonial centres and tensions between local polities and competing empires "Old" and "New" Chinese Business in Cambodia's Capital Michiel Verver, 2020-01-06 China's influence over economic and political affairs in Cambodia is undisputed It is the biggest investor in Cambodia adding nearly US 5.3 billion between 2013 and 2017 especially into real estate development the garment industry and the tourism sector For Phnom Penh's SMEs new Chinese migrants are an increasingly important clientele and raw materials machinery consumer goods and capital from Greater China have been vital resources At the same time they face competition from entrepreneurs from China entering the Cambodian market For Cambodia's elite entrepreneurs known as oknha China is an export destination for Cambodian timber and cash crops and new Chinese investments provide business opportunities in the form of construction contracts and joint ventures in real estate and tourism development industrial parks or the energy sector Recent Chinese investments and migrants have reinforced Cambodia's established politico economic order which is characterized by ethnic Chinese economic dominance as well as a divide between the business state elite and the general population Merchant Communities in Asia, 1600-1980 Madeleine Zelin, 2015-10-06 This book is the first to use local primary sources to explore the interaction between foreign and native merchants in Asian countries Contributors discuss the different economic political and cultural conditions that gave rise to a variety of merchant communities in Korea China Japan Taiwan the Philippines Singapore and India

Transnational Dynamics in Southeast Asia Nathalie Fau, Sirivanh Khonthapane, Christian Taillard, 2014 Since the 1990s regional organizations of the United Nations and international financial institutions have adopted a new dynamic of transnational integration within the framework of the regionalization process of globalization In place of the growth triangles of the 1970s a strategy based on transnational economic corridors has changed the scale of regionalization Silk Road to Belt Road Md. Nazrul Islam, 2018-11-30 This volume approaches China's Belt and Road Initiative as a process of culturalization one that started with the Silk Road and continued over the millennium In mainstream literature the Belt and Road Initiative BRI has been portrayed as the geo economic vision and geo political ambition of China's current leaders intended to shape the future of the world However this volume argues that although geo politics and geo economy may play their part the BRI more importantly creates a venue for the meeting of cultures by promoting people to people interaction and exchange This volume explores the journey from the Silk Road to Belt Road by analyzing topics ranging from history to religion from language to culture and from environment to health As such scholars academics researchers undergraduate and graduate students from the Humanities Social Sciences and Business will find an alternative approach to the Belt and Road Initiative Chinese Family Businesses in Malaysia Lee Kean Yew, 2025-03-31 Lee focuses on the historical and cultural journey of Chinese family businesses CFBs in Malaysia uncovering the dynamic interplay of ethnic resources generational knowledge and state led development policies that have shaped their survival and success With one of the largest Chinese communities in Southeast Asia Malaysia offers a rich landscape to explore the evolution of CFBs Through analyzing 12 small and medium sized enterprises SMEs across key economic sectors the book examines how Chinese family businesses have adapted to a shifting landscape from leveraging deep rooted networks and ethnic heritage to navigating government policies that have both challenged and shaped their growth It uncovers key factors such as tacit knowledge innovation and generational transitions that have driven the evolution of these enterprises in Malaysia's competitive business environment Drawing on detailed case studies Lee demonstrates how tradition innovation and strategic decision making converge to sustain business longevity across generations An essential read for researchers students family business practitioners and business historians and anyone interested in understanding the resilience and adaptability of Chinese family businesses

World Trade Systems of the East and West Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2017-11-13 In World Trade Systems of the East and West Geoffrey C Gunn profiles Nagasaki's historic role in mediating the Japanese bullion trade especially silver exchanged against Chinese and Vietnamese silk Founded in 1571 as the terminal port of the Portuguese Macau ships

Nagasaki served as Japan's window to the world over long time and with the East West trade carried on by the Dutch and with even more vigor by the Chinese junk trade. While the final expulsion of the Portuguese in 1646 characteristically defines the closed period of early modern Japanese history, the real trade seclusion policy this work argues only came into place one century later when the Shogunate firmly grasped the true impact of the bullion trade upon the national economy.
