Sensibility and English Song Stephen Banfield, 1985 This highly acclaimed study of English song is the first detailed account of an unusually fruitful interrelationship between English music and English poetry The period covered is known as the English Musical Renaissance and runs from the last years of the nineteenth century to the Second World War Stephen Banfield traces the late flowering of Romantic impulses in solo song during these years surveying it from critical analytical and historical angles He plots the growth of the English stylistic sensibility in song in the decades leading up to the First World War discusses in detail the plateau it reached between the wars particularly in the 1920s and shows how and why it declined as other musical concerns took the field Poets whose verse was set to music most frequently including Housman Hardy de la Mare and Yeats are treated at length as are pre eminent song composers such as Butterworth Finzi Gurney Ireland Quilter Somervell Stanford Vaughan Williams and Warlock In all more than fifty composers are discussed and numerous individual songs In the final section of the book besides providing an extensive bibliography Dr Banfield catalogues over 5 000 songs giving dates of composition and publication and much other detail listed by composer This comprehensive survey will prove an invaluable reference guide to all students of the subject Britten, Voice and Piano Graham Johnson, 2017-10-03 This collection of eight lectures by internationally acclaimed pianist Graham Johnson is based on a series of concert talks given at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama as part of the Benjamin Britten festival in 2001 The focus of the book is on Britten s songs starting with his earliest compositions in the genre Graham Johnson suggests that the nature of Britten s creativity is especially apparent in his setting of poetry that he becomes the poet s alter ego A chapter on Britten s settings of Auden and Eliot explores the particular influences these writers brought to bear at opposite poles of the composer s life The inspiration of fellow musicians is also discussed with a chapter devoted to Britten s time in Russia and his friendship with the Rostropovitch family Closer to home the book places in context Britten s folksong settings illustrating how he subverted the English folksong tradition by refusing to accept previous definitions of what constituted national loyalty Drawing on letters and diaries and featuring a number of previously unpublished photographs this book illuminates aspects of Britten s songs from the personal perspective of the pianist who worked closely with Peter Pears after Benjamin Britten was unable to perform through illness Johnson worked with Pears on learning the role of Aschenbach in Death in Venice and was official pianist for the first master class given by Peter Pears at Snape in 1972
