Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences Brian Hurwitz, Paola Spinozzi, 2011 Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences investigates the forms of writing in which scientific claims are formulated and announced Argumentative strategies compositional rules and figurative expressions in communication and narrativization of scientific knowledge are the focus of interdisciplinary contributions by humanities and science scholars The first part of the book dedicated to Rhetorical and Epistemological Aspects of Science Writing addresses how scientific pursuits and methods feed into multi level texts that generate responses within science society and culture The second part entitled Bioscientific Discourses and Narrations examines popularisations and fictionalizations of science in relation to diversity deviancy ageing illness reproduction the evolution of humankind mathematical models of biomedical systems and the myth of the heroic scientist Assessing the narrative impetus and command of literary and meta discursive strategies shown by contemporary science writers enhances understanding of the methods and conventions through which the biosciences produce knowledge Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien The Educational Prophecies of Aldous Huxley Ronald Zigler, 2015-03-05 The visionary legacy of Aldous Huxley is as relevant today as ever Huxley possessed a sober understanding of the human condition as well as an inspired vision of the human potential This volume presents an interdisciplinary examination and appreciation of Aldous Huxley s three visionary novels Brave New World 1932 Ape and Essence 1948 and Island 1962 to reveal the extent to which Huxley s prognoses into our possible futures was prophetic The author assesses each novel to reveal the foresights that define our current educational social religious political and economic institutions while also exposing our conflicts within those institutions This volume examines the educational cultural and technological changes that have shaped our society since Huxley s work with special reference to the enduring legacy of educational philosopher John Dewey It offers profound insights into the educational forces and moral foundations of our society that shape us both inside and outside of our schools It is the first of its kind to focus exclusively on all three of Huxley's visionary novels and detail their relevance to our world today Dead Wood and Rushing Water Boyd Jay Petersen, 2013-10-22 For over a decade Boyd Petersen has been an active voice in Mormon studies and thought In essays that steer a course between apologetics and criticism striving for the balance of what Eugene England once called the radical middle he explores various aspects of Mormon life and culture from the Dream Mine near Salem Utah to the challenges that Latter day Saints of the millennial generation face today Choice, 2003 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1969 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries We Remember with Reverence and Love Hasia R Diner, 2009-04-01 Winner of the 2009 National Jewish Book Award in American Jewish Studies Recipient of the 2010 Guggenheim Fellowship in Humanities Intellectual Cultural History It has become an accepted truth after World War II American Jews chose to be silent about the mass murder of millions of their European brothers and sisters at the hands of the Nazis In this compelling work Hasia R Diner shows the assumption of silence to be categorically false Uncovering a rich and incredibly varied trove of remembrances in song literature liturgy public display political activism and hundreds of other forms We Remember with Reverence and Love shows that publicly memorializing those who died in the Holocaust arose from a deep and powerful element of Jewish life in postwar America Not only does she marshal enough evidence to dismantle the idea of American Jewish forgetfulness she brings to life the moving and manifold ways that this widely diverse group paid tribute to the tragedy Diner also offers a compelling new perspective on the 1960s and its potent legacy by revealing how our typical understanding of the postwar years emerged from the cauldron of cultural divisions and campus battles a generation later The student activists and new Jews of the 1960s who in rebelling against the American

Jewish world they had grown up in a world of remarkable affluence and broadening cultural possibilities created a flawed portrait of what their parents had or rather had not done in the postwar years This distorted legacy has been transformed by two generations of scholars writers rabbis and Jewish community leaders into a taken for granted truth Minnesota
