Chemnitz's Works Examination Of The Council Of Trent I 1:

Chemnitz's Works, Volume 1 (Examination of the Council of Trent I) Martin Chemnitz, 1971-05-04 The Examination of the Council of Trent series has been the basis for dialogue between Catholics and Lutherans for centuries This is the first English translation of Chemnitz's work which became the standard Lutheran answer to the claims of Rome as set forth at Trent Each volume of this series contains a Subject and Scripture Text Index This volume sets forth the Protestant interpretation of Sacred Scripture Tradition Free will Original sin Justification Faith Good works Examination of the Council of Trent Martin Chemnitz, 1971 Lutheran Catholic dialogue focuses on sacred Scripture tradition free will original sin justification faith and good works Ruined Sinners to Reclaim David Gibson, Jonathan Gibson, 2024-04-22 Examining the Doctrine of Human Depravity in Scripture and throughout Church History For centuries theologians have debated the doctrine of total depravity the belief that people are wholly and naturally corrupt due to original sin Reformed theology upholds this truth acknowledging it to be essential for understanding the gospel and humanity's need for a Savior Ruined Sinners to Reclaim persuasively reaffirms the doctrine of total depravity from biblical historical theological and pastoral perspectives drawing on the debates of theologians throughout church history Edited by David and Jonathan Gibson this book features contributions from respected theologians including Michael A G Haykin Gray Sutanto Garry Williams Mark Jones Daniel Strange and R Albert Mohler Jr to help readers understand the reality of our sinful nature its debilitating effects and the Holy Spirit's role in salvation This is the second book in the Doctrines of Grace series which explores the central points of the Canons of Dort providing a framework for understanding each doctrine in all its historical biblical theological and pastoral richness Defends the Doctrine of Total Depravity Including sin's origin spread nature and scope as well as its effects on free will Comprehensive Explores theological ideas throughout church history including from the patristic medieval Reformation and post Reformation periods and viewpoints of the Pelagians and Semi Pelagians Arminians Rationalists Romanists and Evolutionists Part of the Doctrines of Grace Series Along with From Heaven He Came and Sought Her this volume explores a central tenet of Reformed theology Well Researched Includes contributions from Michael A G Haykin Mark Jones Lee Gatiss Mark D Thompson Gray Sutanto Douglas Sean O Donnell Daniel Strange David Wells R Albert Mohler Jr and more The Theology of the Westminster Standards J. V. Fesko, 2014-06-30 For centuries countless Christians have turned to the Westminster Standards for insights into the Christian faith These renowned documents first published in the middle of the 17th century are still considered by many to be some of the most beautifully written summaries of the Bible's teaching ever produced Church historian John Fesko walks readers through the background and theology of the Westminster Confession the Larger Catechism and the Shorter Catechism helpfully situating them within their original context Organized according to the major categories of systematic theology this book utilizes quotations from other key works from the same time period to shed light on the history and significance of these influential documents Martin Luther Larry D. Mansch, Curtis H.

Peters,2016-05-19 Combining biographical narrative and analytical essays this book provides a new comprehensive view of Martin Luther s life and times along with a new examination of the radical theology that sparked the Reformation and changed the Christian world forever Drawing on sources new and old the authors chronicle the fascinating turbulent life of the Great Reformer from a historical point of view Luther s revolutionary thoughts on scripture and salvation are explored from a theological perspective offering a fresh appraisal of the doctrine that irrevocably divided the Roman Catholic Church

Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett,2017-03-16 Five hundred years ago the Reformers were defending doctrines such as justification by faith alone the authority of Scripture and God s grace in salvation some to the point of death Many of these same essential doctrines are still being challenged today and there has never been a more crucial time to hold fast to the enduring truth of Scripture In Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett has brought together a team of expert theologians and historians writing on key doctrines taught and defended by the Reformers centuries ago With contributions from Michael Horton Gerald Bray Michael Reeves Carl Trueman Robert Kolb and many others this volume stands as a manifesto for the church exhorting Christians to learn from our spiritual forebears and hold fast to sound doctrine rooted in the Bible and passed on from generation to generation

Long Before Luther Nathan Busenitz,2017-10-03 Where was the gospel before the Reformation Contemporary evangelicals often struggle to answer that question As a result many Roman Catholics are quick to allege that the Reformation understanding of the gospel simply did not exist before the 1500s They assert that key Reformation doctrines like sola fide were nonexistent in the first fifteen centuries of church history Rather they were invented by Martin Luther John Calvin and others That is a serious charge and one that evangelicals must be ready to answer If an evangelical understanding of the gospel is only 500 years old we are in major trouble However if it can be demonstrated that Reformers were not inventing something new but instead were recovering something old then key tenets of the Protestant faith are greatly affirmed Hence the need for this book

Common Places in Christian Theology Mark C. Mattes,2023-03-21 Common Places in Christian Theology invites readers to discover the rich and complex world of Christian theology Sponsored by the journal Lutheran Quarterly and written by some of the finest contemporary Lutheran theologians this collection of essays helps Christian teachers understand and explain the grammar and inner logic of faith Exploring everything from scriptural authority to salvation and justification and the last things these writers provide a unique and compelling introduction to Lutheran theology As you receive the essentials of each topic you will also consider contemporary concerns whether in theology or from the natural sciences social sciences political theories or hermeneutics Whether you are a seasoned preacher looking to sharpen your understanding of faith or a curious Christian seeking to better articulate your relationship with God Common Places in Christian Theology will challenge and inspire you to think through your faith and share it with others

Lutheran Patristic Catholicity Quentin D. Stewart,2015 This book examines how Lutheranism continued to define itself as the evangelical catholic faith during almost two centuries of struggle over ownership of the fathers Central to the discussion is Martin Chemnitz who grappled with charges of theological novelty appealed to a qualified consensus of the fathers and responded to Trent's claim to the ancient ecumenical consensus Subsequent responses of Lutheran Orthodoxy to the Roman Catholic defense of Tridentine dogma and its particular appeal to the ancient consensus and later to the patristic ecumenism of Georg Calixt are also explored Series Works of Historical and Systematic Theology Arbeiten zur Historischen und Systematischen Theologie Vol 20 Subject Religious Studies History Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance
